Dear Mr. & Mrs. Green :

I was down right elated to converse with someone as interested in the Valenti nes as I am. I had previously thought I was out there alone except for the decendants of James Fuhrman Valentine.

I am rushing off to you prints-out for Barnabas and Archibald Nelson Valentine. I have not yet incorporated the information about William H. , Barnabas' son, that I received from Carol A. (Valentine) Alexander-so a will photocopy that for you. Soon I will get it into my computer, and hopefully will also combine the two data bases, Barnabas and Archibald into one.

I also want to apologize for the lack of literary art in my print-outs. I started out using my computer primarily to record information using my genealogical program, Family Origins. I supplemented this with exposition using word processing software. Now I would like to get the exposition, mostly narrative, speculation and interpretation recorded in Family Origins. I have actually done that in the case of John Valentine, Barnabas' eldest son.

Another problem I have to overcome is that the Family Origins software automatically interjects data into my exposition- and it very often is repetitious.

Enjoyed talking with you.

Very truly yours,

Thad

June 19, 1997

Dear Lester and Lucy :

I must apologize for the delay in replying to your letter of April 24th. I had a reaction to some new medication that knocked me out for awhile-not too uncommon for one my age , seventy-nine.

I have also been thinking about pictures- I even bought a "scanner" that I now have attached to my computer. It will enable me to scan a photograph into my computer so that I can then make copies for inclusion in my biographical sketches of the Valentines. My intention is to ask all known descendants for pictures that I can scan- they would then be returned. However, I think such pictures will be very rare!

Personally I have only three pictures from the 19th century, one of Archibald Nelson Valentine and his wife, Margaret (Clum) Valentine, one of his son, Aaron, and one of his son, William.

Apparently, by 1850 the children of Barnabas Valentine were either dead or so widely separately they had lost contact. I have two letters, each written by one of Barnabas ' children that indicate this to be the case. As far as I can tell, after fifteen years of digging, no one other than myself has made any attempt to trace all of the ten children. The descendants of James Fuhrman Valentine are the only descendants that have preserved the story of Barnabas.

Susan Norris Bergen, a descendant of Barnabas' son John , is now working hard on her family and will accomplish a lot, I'm sure.

In short, we're climbing a difficult mountain.

Best wishes,

Thad

Thad M. Taylor

These are all on Charts in Bernards File

FIRST GENERATION

1. Barnabas VALENTINE was born on 11 May 1757 in Northern Ireland. Barnabas Valentine.
Birth date is from Barnabas' will per B.V.in her letter of 6 June 1988.
Note however that Mrs. Clapp has no knowledge of a will; see her letter of 30 Jan 1989. He served in the military between 1777 and 1783 in Revolutionary War. He appeared on the census in 1810 in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. He was a Shoemaker and Weaver between 1810 and 1819 in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. He appeared on the census in 1820 in Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. He appeared on the census in 1830 in Hopewell Township, Perry County, Ohio. He died on 14 Jul 1831 in Hopewell Township, Perry County, Ohio.

Barnabas Valentine.
Mrs. Clapp, in her typewritten, Valentine Generalogy, shows Philadelphia as Barnabas' death place. The 1830 Census however places him in Hopewell Township, Perry County, Ohio.

It should also be noted that Barnabas was on the Tax Roll for Mifflin County for 1807.

Barnabas was married to Jane/Hannah Unknown in 1783. This fact is apparently based on the birthdate of his first child.. See Lola Avellar's story of Barnabas, rev'd 29 Dec 86. Jane or Hannah was born in 1764, and died in 1836. In her letter of 1 Jan 96, Ruth Janice Barton states, " In a letter written by Barnabas,Sr's grandaughter, Nancy Brown (James Fuhrman's daughter, dated 20 Feb 1918, she states her grandmother's name was Hannah." Could it have been Hannah Jane ? In a deed executed in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania on the 15th of March 1819, her name is Jane. RJB queries, Could Barnabas have married twice ?

He was married to Jane UNKNOWN in 1783. Jane or Hannah Unknown. See Lola's story of Barnabas, rec'd 12/29/86. She got this story from someone else-it does mention that Barnabas joined the army at age 18, four years after his arrival in America. His marriage occured 9 years after he joined the army. Jane UNKNOWN was born in 1764. She died in 1836. Jane or Hannah ? In her letter of 1/1/96, Ruth Janice Barton states," In a letter written by Barnabas ,Sr's granddaughter, Nancy Brown (James Furman Sr's daughter) dated 20 Feb 1918, she states her grandmother's name was Hannah." Could it have been Hannah Jane ?

In the deed executed in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania on the 15th of March 1819 her name is Jane.

RJB , 1/1/96 also raises the question, "Could Barnabas have married twice...?" Children of Barnabas VALENTINE and Jane UNKNOWN were:

+2 i. Catherine VALENTINE.
+3 ii. Eleanor (Elnor) VALENTINE.
4 iii. Mary VALENTINE was born in 1791 in Pennsylvania.
+5 iv. William Henry VALENTINE.
6 v. Robert VALENTINE[1] was born in 1800 in Pennsylvania. He died before 1850. Census Records 1810 Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania . Robert fits into the Census of Barnabas' household.

1820 Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. Robert, age 20, fits the Census of Barnabas' household.

1830

1840 There is a Robert Valentine in Lima Township, Allen County per the Census Index.

Date of death was before 1850 according to Sarah Jane(Valentine) Neely in her letter dated 3 Aug1850.

+7 vi. Jane VALENTINE.
+8 vii. Nancy VALENTINE.
+9 viii. James Fuhrman VALENTINE.
+10 ix. Barnabas ,Junior VALENTINE.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Catherine VALENTINE was born in 1784 in Pennsylvania. She died in 1868 in Snyder County, Pennsylvania. She was buried in 1868 in Old Adamsburg Cemetery in Beaver Springs, Pennsylvania. Catherine Valentine. I have no information on Catherine. However recently
I found at the Genealogical Forum of Oregon (7 March 1995) by accident a reference to a Catherine Valentine, who was born in 1785 and died in 1868. She was the spouse of Samuel Aurand. I found this information in a volume, entitled Pennsylvania Society S. A. R.,1955. This book was a rebound copy of what appears to be a yearbook for that organization. It mentioned Samuel's membership was based on his father's service in the Northumberland County, Pennsylvania Militia.

I wrote to the National Society Sons of the American Revolution asking for a copy of the information on which the above membership was based. I thought that I might learn something of Catherine from such records, at least which she and her husband had lived. I received a copy of the Application for Membership, which indicated that the Aurand family was an old Huguenot family that had fled France for Germany following the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes (1685).In this country the family first settled in what is now Union County, Pennsylvania. Samuel Aurand, spouse of Catherine Valentine, appears to have been born in Union County, but to have lived in Snyder County. Most reasonably he and Catherine married in the Reformed Church in Snyder County. It should be noted Snyder County is contiguous to both Mifflin and Juniata Counties.

What this amounts to is that I now have a lead as to where Catherine lived after her marriage, and where she died, and perhaps a clue as to when Barnabas reached Mifflin County; perhaps as early as 1806 if Catherine married at the age of twenty-one.

She was married to Samuel AURAND in probably Snyder County, Pennsylvania. Samuel AURAND was born in 1786 in Union County, Pennsylvania. He died in 1861 in Snyder County, Pennsylvania. Catherine VALENTINE and Samuel AURAND had no known children.

3. Eleanor (Elnor) VALENTINE was born in 1786 in Pennsylvania. She was buried in 1853 in Thompson Cemetery, Rush Creek Township, Fairfield Cty.,Ohio. She died on 4 Feb 1853 in Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. There is a two or three year discrepancy in age between that shown (on the tombstone)and the birth date we had from Lola Avellar.and In her letter dated 3 Aug 1850, Sarah Jane (Valentine) Neely writing to her brother, James Fuhrman, states," Sister Ellen Wisher sent me a letter a few weeks ago." In the next paragraph she writes, "If I can I will come and see you in September. I will take with me my youngest child, Harriet. I should be glad to go and see sister Elen Wisher Must check 1850 Census (Ohio) for Wisher.

Among the documents received from the Orphans Court in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania on page 3 by my numbering, is a promissory note signed by Robert Valentine and David Wisher. The date is either 1816 or 1819. The point of interest is that a relationship is established between the Valentines and the Wishers.

Another point of interest is the fact that in the Thompson Cemetery of the First Rush Creek Presbyterian Church (where John Valentine is buried) are two graves occupied by Ellen Wisher, wife of David and David Wisher.

She was married to David WISHER. David WISHER was buried in 1853 in Thompson Cemetery, Rush Creek Township, Fairfield Cty.,Ohio. He died on 25 Feb 1853 in Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. Eleanor (Elnor) VALENTINE and David WISHER had no known children.

5. William Henry VALENTINE was born in 1797 in Pennsylvania. He appeared on the census in 1800 in Pennsylania. He appeared on the census in 1810 in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. He appeared on the census in 1820 in Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. He appeared on the census in 1830 in Thorn Township, Perry County, Ohio.[2] He resided at Allen County, Ohio in 1838.[3] He appeared on the census in 1840 in Auglaize Township, Allen County, Ohio.[2] He died in 1848 in presumably Harrison Township, Champaign County,Ohio. See Ltr.,RJB,1 Jan96 He resided at Harrison Township, Champaign County, Ohio at date of death. Information from Beatrice Valentine :

Ltr.,7 July 88
" I also feel William H. Valentine of Logan County, Ohio (1850-1860) was brother to John, Barnabas,and James, as I mentioned previously." The James referred to is James Fuhrman. This was an early comment. I did not believe it was correct.

Ltr., 24 Apr 89 1789
" William H. Valentine, bc ~~1805~~; d. before 1850;m.13 Jan 1824 at Perry County, Ohio to Hannah Keith (O'Keefe), b. ~~1805~~ (1795),Va . In 1850 she was head of household at Harrison Twp., Champaign Co.,Ohio and was not on the 1860 Census".
She also reports that in the 1830 Census, W.H. was in Thorn Township,Perry Co.,Ohio; in the 1840 Census he was at Auglaize Twp,,Allen County. In the same letter she mentions that Archibald Washington Valentine was born in 1826.

Ltr.,29 Jul 89
This letter reports a "land entry" for W.H. in 1840 at Auglaize Twp., Allen Cty.

Ltr.,3 Mar 92

Ltr.,14 Jun 94
Reports on 1840 Census for Auglaize Twp., Allen Cty.
Also mentions W.H. was next door to William Keith, age 70-80, and spouse, age 50-60.

William was Barnabas' second son, and is so described by Barnabas in his affidavit, Schedule of Property, executed 24 Oct 1821 (Pension Document #12).In her letter of 3 Jan 1989, Lola has William in Massillon Township, Stark County, Ohio. This would see to be in error as William would be 43, and the census cited has no male of that age.

Ruth Janice Barton reports in her letter of 1/1/96 that William died in the fall of 1848.She quotes a letter from Sarah J. Neely to James F. Valentine and his spouse, Anna Herron Valentine. The subject letter is dated 3 Aug 1850.

RJB, in her cited letter, states, " My records from the Valentine Family Bible held by Fred F. Brown (Nancy (Valentine) Brown's son) in 1924 show William Valentine's birthdate as 1797, not 1805."

As to the question of William's spouse , we have :

a. RJB , again in her cited letter, makes reference to Sarah Jane (Valentine) Neely's letter of 3 Aug 1850, and her mention of Hannah, ..." presumably his wife Hannah Keith ?"

b. BV, in her letter of 8 May 89, states, " Census records indicate William Valentine who married Hannah Keith; died bet 1848 and 1850."

c. W. H. was one of the witnesses to William Keith's will in 1843 at Allen County.

Yes He was married to Hannah KEITH on 13 Jan 1824 in Perry County, Ohio. Thelma Crader reports marriage information from Book I, page 48 of " Index to Male Marriages", Perry County.

No Ester Valentine Ryburg reported in her letter of 10 Jun 85 that William Valentine and Hannah Keith were married in Champaign County,Ohio. Hannah KEITH was born in 1795 in Virginia. Hannah Valentine is mentioned in the Will of Elizabeth Keith dated 16 October 1837 and filed in Allen County, Ohio Children of William Henry VALENTINE and 1827 Marriage. Confirmed on page 118, "Ohio Records and Pioneers",a publication I found at the Kingman Genealogy Society. Marriage performed by William Mechling,M.G.

1829 Birth of James Fuhrman ,Jr.(30 August)

1830 Census. James is in the Index for Hopewell Township, Perry County.
1831 James F.'s father dies 14 July at Hopewell Township, Perry County, Ohio.
James is actively pursuing Barnabas' land claim with the War Departmemt?This is assumed because of Barnabas' age, but is not indicated in the file.
1831 Daughter Mary is born.
1833 Land claim is settled.Barnabas (actually his survivor(s)?) receives a grant of 100 acres, but where ? Was it this land grant that took Barnabas' son James F. Valentine to Wisconsin ? See also 1845 below.

1833 Daughter Sarah is born.
1836 Archibald Christian is born(11 February) and in Hocking County, Ohio per Paul Valentine.
1838 Daughter Lucinda is born.

1840 Census. James Fuhrman is not included in Index for Ohio. Mrs. Maynard L. Clapp writes (30 January 1989), " ... James Fuhrman Valentine was not found in Ohio's 1840 Census because he had traveled to Wisconsin, and settles on "Buckeye Ridge" with others from Ohio. It is in the LaFarge, Viroqua area".However it was James Furhman Valentine, Jr. who traveled to Wisconsin, not his father, who was in Athens County at the farm of his wife's parents. .

1840 Daughter Margaret is born.

1843 Son Robert is born.
1845 James F. filed a survivors claim against Barnabas' service record. The claim was apparently granted as it was assigned a number, S 40616. See BV Ltr dtd 2 Jul 1990

In viewing the National Archives pension film, B.V.found three documents,two of which are now missing from the file.

One document, a letter dated 26 September 1845, reads,

" Sir :

Mr. James F. Valentine is under the belief that there is something due on account of his father, Barnabas Valentine, Revolutionary War service
As it appears from the enclosed that he was a pensioner. I will thank you to be so good as to let me know the true nature of these services.
Be so good as to mention his letter.

Yours very respectfully,
Francis A. Dickson"

Note that we do not know Francis A. Dickson. He was not an Ohio or Wisconsin Congressman. He may have been a Senator ?

Note also we do not know to whom the letter was addressed.However, we do find J.F. Valentine in the 1850 Census for Jerome Township, Union County, Ohio. (L.A.,3 Jan 89).

The second document is dated 5 June 1819 and is written by the Auditor General of the State of Pennsylvania. It reads,

" I certify that the name of Bernard Valentine is amongst a number of Names in a paper on file in the office headed, " A List of Soldiers of headed " A List of Soldiers of Cap't Samples Company, 10th Reg't,PA. That it appears thereby he enlisted in May, 1777, that although the said paper is not signed or has any official character, it appears by the handwriting to be that of John Nickolson, formerly Comptroller General of PA (width whose handwriting I am familiar and with whom I am well acquainted, that the said paper had been used by him, the said Nickolson, in the adjustment of the accounts of the officer and the privates therein written.

Wit.my hand and Seal of the Office of the Auditor General at Harrisburg on the 5th day of June, 1819.

George Byron, Auditor General"

The third document which is also in the Pension File, shows the computation of the original payment made to Bernard :

" 8.00 per mo.to start 15 August 1818.Certificate of Pension 11 July-February 1819. Arrears 4 September 1818-5.44, Semi-annual allocation ending 4 March 1819,$48.00= $53.44 ".

Not altogether clear !
1845 Daughter Nancy is born.

1850 Census. Jerome Township, Union County, Ohio. Aged 45, and a wagon-maker. wife, Anna and seven children. Per Lola Avellar, her ltr. dated 3 January 1989.

1851 Jerome Township, Frankfort, Union County, Ohio; per Barnabas,Jr's ltr of 6 Dep 1851.
1852 Son William is born.
1860 Census, James, Jr. is in Jerome Township, Union County, Ohio, but his father is not.

1870 Census.

1880 Census. Benton Township, Paulding County, Ohio, per Beatrice Valentine in her letter of 13 June 1988.

1883. Died 20 August 1883, probably in Paulding County, Ohio.

Thelma Crader, a searcher in Perry County, in 1995, came up with an interesting transaction involving James Fuhrman and his wife Anna, and also involving her sister and brother-in-law, Sarah and Benjamin Wooley. Ms Crader found a deed, dated in 1830 in which James Fuhrman and Anna joined with Benjamin Wooley and his wife Sarah in deeding to Charles Herron, 148-1/2 acres in Perry County for $80. TDhe wives are identified as daughters of Robert Herron, lately deceased. All parties are described as residents of Perry County.

The subject land consists of two undivided seventh parts of estate. There must have been seven survivors, presumably including the widow.What was being conveyed were the interests Anna and Sarah had inherited.

I later found in a publication, A Listing of Entrymen on Lands in Perry County,Ohio that the land deeded was part of the SW quarter of Section 11,in Township 17 (Hopewell), in Range 16.

There is a related recording of a deed by the Sheriff of Perry County executed 16 June 1832 to Charles Herron covering the same 148 acres and identifying it as being in Hopewell Township. Thelma Crader furnished me with an abstract of this document which seem to indicate that it was necessitated by "a set off to widow of 38 acres."

The significance of these deeds is that they confirm James Fuhrman as a resident of Hopewell Township, Perry County. We had previously determined that from the 1830 Census.

He was married to Anna HERRON on 16 Aug 1827 in Perry County, Ohio by William Mechling, M.G.. Thelma Crader reports this marriage is recorded in " Index to Male Marriages", Perry County, Book I, page 88. James Fuhrman Valentine and Ann Herron. See page 118, Ohio Records and Pioneers, a publication which I found at the Kingman Genealogical Society.
Marriage was performed by William Mechling, M.G. Anna HERRON was born on 7 Sep 1809 in Athens County, Ohio. She died on 5 Oct 1888 in probably Perry County, Ohio.
Ann Herron. See Lola's typewritten genealogy.
Ann was from Athens County, Ohio per Lola's typewritten genealogy. Children of James Fuhrman VALENTINE and Anna HERRON were:

+26 i. James Fuhrman VALENTINE Jr.
+27 ii. Mary VALENTINE.
28 iii. Sarah VALENTINE was born in 1833. She died in 1850.
+29 iv. Archibald Christian VALENTINE.

38 xiii. Robert VALENTINE was born in 1843. He died in 1844.
39 xiv. Nancy VALENTINE was born in 1845. She died in 1928.

10. Barnabas ,Junior VALENTINE was born in 1811 in Pennsylvania. He appeared on the census in 1820 in Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. He appeared on the census in 1830. He appeared on the census in 1840 in Richland Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. He appeared on the census in 1850. He resided at Monday Creek Township, Perry County, Ohio in 1851.

Chronology :

1820 Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County, Ohio

1830

1837 Married to Jane Guiger at Perry County, O.

1840 Lola Avellar in her letter of 3 Jan 1989 has Barnabas,Jr in Fairfield County,Ohio. This letter supports the 1811 birthdate for Barnabas,Jr as it shows a male, 20-30 years of age. But see Valentine Newsletter No 31, in which B.V. reports Barney at Richmond (should be Richland) Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. There is one male, 20-30, one female, 20-30, two females under 5, and two males, 5-10.

1850 In this Census, Barnabas is 37 and his wife Jane is 25.He was born in Pennsylvania and she in Ohio. B.V. in her letter of 19 Aug 89, reports that Barnabas and Jane were residing in the home of William Ross, age 23, a farmer, born in Ohio. Ross' wife (or sister) , Mary was age 18. Could Mary have been a Valentine ?

1851 Barnabas,Jr reports in his letter of 6 Sept 1851 that he is in Monday Creek Township, Perry County, 9 miles northeast of Logan, near the Somerset Road. Also in the follwing fall, he expects to move to Iowa.Check Iowa Census for 1860.

He was married to Guiger (Geiger ?) JANE in 1837 in Perry County, Ohio. Marriage Information is from Thelma Crader. She cites, " Index to Male Marriages", Perry County, O.,Book I, page 226. She states Geiger is a common name in Perry County. Barnabas ,Junior VALENTINE and Guiger (Geiger ?) JANE had no known children.

Dates of birth and death per Lola Avellar, her letter of December, 1985. He died on 11 Sep 1884 in Near Columbus, Ohio. James Fuhrman Valentine, Jr.
Lola Avellar, in her Valentine Genealogy says of Elizabeth and Janes :
"Elizabeth's parents had a farm in Athens County, Ohio. After she and James were married and had four children, they traveled by covered wagon to Wisconsin. They lived there twenty years or more. Her father died and was buried in Wisconsin.
Elizabeth took sick and wanted to go back to Troy, Ohio.They started back and got as far as Payne, Ohio. Here they made another clearing, built another log cabin, and remained the rest of their lives. She and her husband died there, and were buried in Lehman Cemetery, a little south and west of Payne, Ohio.

Note that James' family could not have departed for Wisconsin before 1960, the birth year of Alice Alfaretta, their fourth child. James would have been 31 years old.If they spent twenty-plus years in Wisconsin, he would have been at least 51 when they reached Payne, Ohio. BERNARD vs BARNABAS VALENTINE

5:2-3, 9:3, 10:1-3, 11:2:

Bernard (aka Barnabas) Valentine, b 11 May 1757, Northern Ireland; d 14 July 1831, at Rush Creek, Fairfield County, OH; name of wife unknown, bc 1763/4.

Bernard Valentine, in 1818, a pensioner in Ohio, died 14 July 1831, age 73 at Rush Creek, Fairfield County, Ohio, and not at Philadelphia as written in a family bible. Also written as "Bernard Valentine in 1818, 73 died 14 July 1831, Franklin Co., OH. " Pensioners Living in Ohio Before 1834, Inez Waldenmaier, Tulsa, OK, 1983, taken from A Report from the Secretary of War to the Senate 1834-35, in relation to pensions established in the United States; The Pension Rolls of 1835, The Midwestern States, Four Volumes.

Bernard Valentine's pension application, #6797, disclosed he was in the military service for six years during the Revolutionary War; the Pennsylvania 10th Reg't and the NY Continental Line. Military statements housed at Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH give Pvt. Bernard Valentine's annual allowance as $96.00; sums received, $1239.99; N. Y. Continental Line; placed on Pension Rolls 11 Feb 1819.

On 10 May 1777, Bernard Valentine enlisted in the 10th Reg't, First Brigade, PA Line for six years under Lieut. John Steel, Captain Robert Samples Co, commanded by Col. Wade Hampton; discharged 1783 at Princeton, NJ. Available pay records (R.P.436786) list Bernard as Bernard, Barnard and Barney.

Bernard Valentine stated that he engaged in battles at Brandywine, Paoli, Monmouth and in a great number of skirmishes. Prior to the battle of Monmouth (1778), Bernard was drafted into the Artillary commanded by Cap't Lee, attached to Col. Lamb's Reg't where he remained until the end of the war.

The Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications, a special publication, National Genealogical Society Quarterly, 1976, of private claims presented to the House of Representatives of the U. S., 1st to 31st Congress, incl. Vol. III, gives the Pension List of 1820, Pennsylvania, Bernard Valentine, NY Line, of Mifflin Co., PA. A claim by Bernard Valentine, S40616 for bounty land for service in the NY Continental Line was brought before the House of Representatives Public Lands Committee, #48, with a notation that the nature of the report was favorable. Bill #693 referred to the Committee Whole House. These records were sent for. The records received were very few of Bernard's pay records, Service File, NY, S40616. It has not been determined whether or not Bernard was awarded bounty land.

Bernard Valentine's original declaration, #6797, was dated 18 May 1818; deposition dated 15 Aug 1818 and Bernard's certificate of pension was issued 11 Feb 1819.

On 15 Aug 1818, Bernard appeared personally to attest that he could not provide his original discharge papers because they were worn to pieces from carrying them in his pocket. At the time, Bernard stated he was age 60, a resident of Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co., Pa., and claimed he was owed back-pay for his services and "prize money" which was awarded to all of the men involved in an expedition under Major Green that captured a British vessel.

BERNARD vs BARNABAS VALENTINE

B&E-3, 443, 1031-3, [illegible]

Bernard (aka Barnabas) Valentine, b 11 May 1757, Northern Ireland; d 14 July 1831, at Rush Creek, Fairfield County, OH; name of wife unknown, bc 1760's.

Bernard Valentine, in 1818, a pensioner in Ohio, died 14 July 1831, age 73 at Rush Creek, Fairfield County, Ohio, and not at Philadelphia as written in a family bible. Also written as "Bernard Valentine in 1818, 73 died 14 July 1831, Franklin Co., OH. Pensioners Living in Ohio Before 1834, Sara Waldenmaier, Tulsa, OK, 1987, taken from A Report from the Secretary of War to the Senate, 1834-35, in relation to pensions established in the United States. The Pension Rolls of 1835, The Midwestern States, Four Volumes.

Bernard Valentine's pension application, #[illegible], disclosed he was in the military service for six years during the Revolutionary War; the Pennsylvania 10th Reg't and the NY Continental Line. Military statements sworn at Lancaster, Fairfield Co, OH give (sic) Bernard Valentine's annual allowance as $96.00; sums received, $[illegible]; N. Y. Continental Line; placed on Pension Rolls 11 Feb 1819.

On 10 May 1777, Bernard Valentine enlisted in the 10th Reg't, First Brigade, PA Line for six years under Lieut. John Steel, Captain Robert Douglas Co, commanded by Col. Wade Hampton; discharged 1783 at Princeton, NJ. Available pay records ([illegible]) list Bernard as Barnard, Bernard and Barney.

Bernard Valentine stated that he engaged in battles at Brandywine, Paoli, Monmouth and in a great number of skirmishes. Prior to the battle of Monmouth (1778), Bernard was drafted into the Artillery commanded by Capt Lee, attached to Col. Lamb's Reg't where he remained until the end of the war.

The Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications, a special publication, National Genealogical Society Quarterly, 1976, of private claims presented to the House of Representatives of the U. S., 1st to 31st Congress, incl. Vol. III, gives the Pension List of 1835, Pennsylvania, Bernard Valentine, NY Line, of Mifflin Co, PA. A claim, by Bernard Valentine, [illegible] for bounty land for service in the NY Continental Line was brought before the House of Representatives Public Lands Committee, #40, with a notation that the nature of the report was favorable. Bill #583 referred to the Committee Whole House. These records were sent for. The records revealed were very few of Bernard's pay records, Service File, NY, [illegible]. It has not been determined whether or not Bernard was awarded bounty land.

Bernard Valentine's original declaration, #[illegible], was dated 15 May 1818; deposition dated 15 Aug 1818 and Bernard's certificate of pension was issued 11 Feb 1819.

On 15 Aug 1818, Bernard appeared personally to attest that he could not provide his original discharge papers because they were worn to pieces from carrying them in his pocket. At the time, Bernard stated he was age 60, a resident of Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA., and claimed he was owed back-pay for his services and "prize money" which was awarded to all of the men involved in an expedition under Major Green that captured a British vessel.

On the Schedule of Property dated 10 Oct 1818, Bernard stated that he had due to him "about four or five dollars, old accounts in Pennsylvania. I am a shoemaker by profession, was unable to do but little of it. I have a wife aged about 55 years (not named), who is feeble. We live with William, our second eldest son, being unable to support ourselves only by his assistance and he has only what he has to work for yearly." Bernard's assets consisted of one cow worth $11.00, one pail worth .25 cents and four or five dollars.

On 24 Oct 1821, Bernard Valentine appeared at the Court of Common Pleas, Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH and requested that his pension be transferred from Pennsylvania to his home in Ohio. On 14 Jan 1822, Bernard had to appear again at the same court to prove himself to be the same Bernard Valentine who previously lived in Mifflin Co., PA, and to file an application to transfer. Possibly Bernard had to appear a second time because the census records have him as "Barnabas" Valentine which is no doubt his true name, altered to "Bernard" on his service records. Bernard stated, "I am now a resident in the state of Ohio where I intend to remain." Bernard's monthly pension payment was transferred from Pennsylvania to Ohio 28 June 1822.

A letter included in Bernard Valentine's file, dated 26 Sept 1845 to the Pension Department, Washington, D. C., written by Francis A. Dickens on behalf of James F. Valentine, a descendant of Bernard/Barnabas, stated, "Sir, Mr. James F. Valentine is under the belief that there is something due on account of his father, Barnabas Valentine, Revolutionary War service, as it appears from the enclosed that he was a pensioner. I will thank you to be so good as to let me know the true nature of those services. Be so good as to mention his letter." (the "enclosed" was not included.)

The Pension Dept. responded with a letter stating, "I certify that the name of Bernard Valentine is amongst a number of names in a paper on file in this office headed, A List of Soldiers of Cap't Samples Company, 10th Reg't, PA that it appears thereby he enlisted May 1777, that altho the said paper is not signed or has any official character, it appears by the remarks in the handwriting of John Nickolson, formerly Comptroller General of PA (with whose handwriting I am well acquainted), that the said paper had been used by him, the said Nickolson, in the adjustment of account of officers and privates therein written. 'Wit. my hand and the seal of the Office of Auditor General at Harrisburg, the 5th day of May 1819"', i. e., New York, Bernard Valentine or Volentine, #S40616, #6797, to Ohio from PA; Mifflin Co., Pvt. Col. Lamb's NY Reg't, PA. $8.00 per month to start; arrears 4 Sept 1818, $5.44, semi-annual; Al'ce (allowance) ending 4 Mar 1819, $48.00 = $53.44."

In People of Mifflin Co., PA, 1755-1798, John Martin Stroup and Raymond Marin Bell, pub. by the Mifflin Co. Hist. Soc., 1973, The Houses of Big Valley 1798, Armagh, Brown Twp.,, lists,

"Bridge" Valentine, locat. A., Vol. 12, L.sto.

Neither Bernard nor Barnabas Valentine appeared on any census records until 1810 at Fermanagh, Mifflin Co., PA. The household consisted of 2 m under 10; 1 m 10-16; 2 m 16-26 (Bernard, Jr. and William) 1 m over 45 (Bernard, Sr., age 53); 2 f under 10; 2 f 16-26 (wife of Bernard, Jr.and elder daughter of Bernard, Sr.) 1 f 26-45 (Bernard Sr's wife, age 46)

On the Schedule of Property dated 10 Oct 1818, Barnard stated that he had due to him "about four or five dollars, old accounts in Pennsylvania. I am a shoemaker by profession, was unable to do but little of it. I have a wife aged about 63 years (not named), who is feeble. We live with William, our second eldest son, being unable to support ourselves only by his assistance and he has only what he has to work for yearly." Barnard stated, "I am now a resident in the state of Ohio where I intend to remain." Barnard's monthly pension payment was transferred from Pennsylvania to Ohio 28 June 1822.

A letter included in Barnard Valentine's file, dated 20 Sept 1889 to the Pension Department, Washington, D. C., written by Francis A. Dickens on behalf of James F. Valentine, a descendant of Barnard/Barnabas, stated, "Sir, Mr. James F. Valentine is under the belief that there is something due on account of his father, Barnabus Valentine, Revolutionary War service, as it appears from the enclosed that he was a pensioner. I will thank you to be so good as to let me know the true nature of these services. Be so good as to mention his letter." (The "enclosed" was not included.)

The Pension Dept. responded with a letter stating, "I certify that the name of Barnard Valentine is amongst a number of names in a paper, on file in this office headed, A List of Soldiers of Capt Hendrie Company, 10th Regt, PA that it appears thereby he enlisted May 1777, that while the said paper is not signed or has any official character, it appears by its remarks in the handwriting of John Nicholson, formerly Comptroller General of PA (with whose handwriting I am well acquainted), that the said paper had been used by him, the said Nicholson, in the adjustment of account of officers and privates therein written. Lamb's NY Reg't, $8.00 per month to start, arrears 4 Sept 1818, $5.14, semi-annual allowance ending 4 Mar 1819, $48.00 = $53.14."

In People of Mifflin Co., PA, 1755-1798, Jean Martin Stroup and Raymond Martin Bell, pub. by the Mifflin Co. Hist. Soc., 1973, The Return of the Valley 1790, Armagh, Derry Twp., lists, "Barnabas" Valentine, Locust, A., Vol. 19, Lancs.

Neither Barnard nor Barnabas Valentine appeared on any census records until 1810 at Fermanagh, Mifflin Co., PA. The household consisted of 2 m under 10; 1 m 10-16; 2 m 16-26 (Barnard, Jr. and William); 1 m over 45 (Barnard, Sr., age 58); 2 f under 10; 2 f 16-26 (wife of Barnard, Jr. and elder daughter of Barnard, Sr.); 1 f 26-45 (Barnard Sr's wife, age 49)

Bernard Valentine was a weaver. A List of Domestic Manufacturers, and stock, was 40 (?) of woolen cloth, 65 flaxen, 25 common sheep, one loom, (?) cards (for carding wool and weaving).

In 1810, Barney Valentine was on the list of subscribers dated 11 Dec. to maintain a school-house and teacher, in what is now Walker Twp., Mifflin Co., PA. History of that part of the Sesquehanna and Juniata Valleys, Embraced in the Counties of Mifflin, Juniata, Perry, Union and Snyder in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Two Volumes, Everts, Peck & Richards, 1886, p 860.

On 15 March 1819, Barnard (also written as Barney) Valentine and his wife, Jean, of Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA, sold 23 acres of land for $200.00 to Hugh McAlister, boardered by Nicholas Miller and John Watson; signed with the mark of both Bernard and his wife, Jean.

In 1818/19, the subject, Bernard Valentine, claimed he was poor and living with his second eldest son, William Valentine. Bernard also stated his wife was feeble, and that he was a "shoemaker". It is logical that in 1810 Bernard and his wife were living with his eldest son, Bernard Valentine, Jr. who sold the "family farm" and they all went on to Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH.

The problem being that the son, Bernard Jr. does not appear again in either Pennsylvania, Ohio, or any other mid-western state.

By 1820, Barnabas and John Valentine were neighbors at Rush Creek, Fairfield County, Oh. which is where Bernard Valentine was living when he requested that his pension payment be forwarded from Pennsylvania to his home in Ohio.

Thad M. Taylor and Lola Avellar, descendants of this family, previously unknown to one another, both stated that by family tradition, Bernard Valentine was kidnapped in 1771 at age 14 in Ulster, Ireland by a ship's Captain and thrown on his ship that docked in Baltimore, MD. Bernard escaped and was taken in by a Minister until he was able to be on his own.

There is ~~a~~ reportedly, a Bible record that states "Barnabas Valentine was born 11 May 1757, Northern Ireland; d 14 Jul 1831, Philadelphia, PA; mc 1783, Jane or Hannah, bc 1764; d 1836."
Family lore has Barnabas owning a farm on the site of Bryn Mawr College (Montgomery Co., PA); that he had ten children, five sons and five daughters, and died in 1831 at age 74 near Philadelphia.
The family farm is said to have gone to Barnabas's daughter, Eleanor Valentine. The Bible belonged to Barnabas's granddaughter, Nancy Valentine Brown, on file at either the Ohio or Pennsylvania State Library. A search has not produced this family Bible record.

The aforementioned facts dispute the Bible Records. Bernard Valentine died at Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH., not at Philadelphia, PA. The "family farm" was at Mifflin Co., PA, not Philadelphia, The "site of the Bryn Mawr College" (Montgomery Co., PA) was most likely the "school" Bernard, Jr. had a part in establishing at Mifflin Co., PA. The "family farm" that went to Eleanor Valentine was in Perry Co., OH formerly Fairfield Co., OH.

The absence of the family bible records and the (tongue in cheek) census takers of that period causes a great deal of confusion towards establishing this family.

Bernard Valentine used Bernard on his service records and his given name of Barnabas on the U. S. Census Records.

Bernard Valentine was a weaver. A List of Domestic Manufactures, and stock, was 40 (?) of woolen cloth, 60 flaxen, 25 common sheep, one loom, (?) cards (for carding wool and weaving).

In 1810, Barney Valentine was on the list of subscribers dated 11 Dec. to maintain a school-house and teacher, in what is now Walker Twp., Mifflin Co., PA: History of that part of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys, Embraced in the Counties of Mifflin, Juniata, Perry, Union and Snyder in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Two Volumes, Everts, Peck & Richards, 1886, p 890.

On 15 March 1818, Bernard (also written as Barney) Valentine and his wife, Jean, of Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA, sold 20 acres of land for $200.00 to Hugh McAlister, bordered by Nicholas Miller and John Watson; signed with the mark of both Bernard and his wife, Jean.

In 1818/19, the subject, Bernard Valentine, claimed he was poor and living with his second eldest son, William Valentine. Bernard also stated his wife was feeble, and that he was a "shoemaker". It is logical that in 1820 Bernard and his wife were living with his eldest son, Bernard Valentine, Jr. who sold the "family farm" and they all went on to Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH.

The problem being that his son, Bernard Jr. does not appear again in either Pennsylvania, Ohio, or any other mid-western state.

By 1830, Christian and John Valentine were neighbors at Rush Creek, Fairfield County, OH. which is where Bernard Valentine was living when he requested that his pension payment be forwarded from Pennsylvania to his home in Ohio.

Inez M. Taylor and Leila Avelar, descendants of this family, previously unknown to one another, both stated that by family tradition, Bernard Valentine was kidnapped in 1771 at age 14 in Ulster, Ireland by a ship's Captain and thrown on the ship that docked in Baltimore, MD. Bernard escaped and was taken in by a Minister until he was able to go on his own.

Issued is a, reportedly, a Bible record that states "Barnabas Valentine was born 11 May 1757, Northern Ireland, d 18 Jan 1831, Philadelphia, PA, mr 1783, Jean or Hannah, b 1758, d 1836." Family lore has Barnabas owning a farm on the site of Bryn Mawr College (Montgomery Co., PA); that he had ten children, five sons and five daughters, and died in 1831 at age 74 near Philadelphia. The family farm is said to have gone to Barnabas's daughter, Eleanor Valentine. The Bible belonged to Barnabas's granddaughter, Nancy Valentine Brown, on file at either the Ohio or Pennsylvania State Library. A search has not produced this family Bible record.

The circumstantial facts dispute the Bible records. Bernard Valentine died at Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH, not at Philadelphia, PA. The "family farm" was at Mifflin Co., PA, not Philadelphia. The "site of the Bryn Mawr College" (Montgomery Co., PA) was most likely the "other" Bernard. Jr. had a part in establishing at Mifflin Co., PA. The "family farm" that went to Eleanor Valentine was in Perry Co., OH formerly Fairfield Co., OH.

The absence of the family Bible records and the changes in church census taken of that period causes a great deal of confusion towards establishing this family.

Bernard Valentine used Bernard on his service records and his given name of Barnabas on the U. S. Census Records.

Rush Creek Twp., Fairfield Co., OH, is in the southeastern part and most eastern section of Fairfield and Reading Twp. of Perry Co., OH on the south side of Marion Twp. of Hocking Co., on the east by Jackson Twp. of Perry Co., and on the west by Pleasant and Berne Twps. In 1804 the land surveyed by Elnathan Schofield was originally two miles longer latitudinally than it is now. In 1840, it was made two miles shorter, north and south, than it is now, by the creation of Auburn Twp. of short duration. In 1851 Hocking Twp. encroached on the boarders of Fairfield. Auburn was divided equally between Rush Creek Twp. of Fairfield and Marion Twp. of Hocking, making Rush Creek a complete township for the first time. It is probable it was originally formed from Pleasant, Berne and Richfield Twps. The History of Fairfield County, OHio, p 249.

BERNARD vs BARNABAS VALENTINE

PART TWO:

Bernard/Barnabas Valentine was born 11 May 1757, Northern Ireland; d 14 July 1831, age 74 at Hopewell Twp., Perry Co., OH; wife's name unknown.

The first Bernard Valentine, (Valentine Bernard), found on the 1790 Census was at Hudson Town, Columbia Co., NY; 2 males over 16. (Bernard, b 1757 and John, bc 1774) and four females.

In 1810 Bernard Valentine was at Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA; 2 males und. 10; 1 male 10/16; 2 males 16/26; 1 male over 45; 2 females und. 10; 2 females 16/26; 1 female over 45. This appears to be a two-family household. From the inventory of manufacturers, Bernard was a miller, whereas, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine of the same place, at the time of his pension application in 1818, was a shoemaker by trade and a very poor man.

From the ages given for Bernard Valentine in 1810 it is logical that the subject, Bernard/Barnabas, the shoemaker, was living with his son, Bernard Valentine, Jr., the miller. By 1818 Bernard/Barnabas had moved in with his second eldest son, William Valentine, and Bernard/Barnabas Valentine's wife was "feeble".

In 1820 Barnabas and John Valentine were neighbors at Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH, from which point Bernard Valentine requested that his pension be forwarded from PA to OH.

Family tradition refers to a will in which Bernard/Barnabas Valentine named his two sons William and James Fuhrman Valentine, (sons, John and Bernard, Jr. having died), and devised the "family farm in PA" to his daughter, Eleanor. A recent search in Fairfield Co., OH, Will Books 1 and 2, 1803-1838 by Thad Taylor, a descendant, failed to produce a will. I do not know if a search was made in Perry Co., OH.

Information in the family Bible named the children of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, viz: Catharine, Barnabas, Jr., William, Mary, John, Eleanor, Nancy, Jane, Robert, and James Fuhrman Valentine, b 26 Mar 1806, the youngest child. No other information was provided - to me.

James Fuhrman Valentine was the person who had reason to believe, from papers he had found, that his father had a pension, and in 1845 requested military records for his father, "Barnabas Valentine" that came back under the name of "Bernard Valentine".

On 15 March 1819, Bernard Valentine, aka Barney Valentine and his wife, Jean, sold their 23 acre farm at Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA to Hugh McAlister for $200.00. Bernard Valentine was not listed as such thereafter.

In 1820 Barnabas Valentine's household at Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH consisted of 2 males 10 and under, 2 males 10/16, 2 males 16/26 and 1 male over 45; 1 female 16/18 and 1 female over 45.

In 1830 Barnabas Valentine's household at Hopewell Twp., Perry Co., OH (form. FF Co.) consisted of 1 male 10/15 (bc 1815-1820), 1 male 60/70 (Bernard/Barnabas) and 1 female 60/70, (his wife).

I suggest that in 1810 at Mifflin Co., PA, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine and his family were living with his son, Bernard Valentine, Jr. and his wife, Jean. In 1820, Bernard, Jr. and his wife were living with Bernard/Barnabas Valentine at Rush Creek, FF Co., OH, and that the two males, 10 and under, were sons of Bernard Valentine, Jr., viz: Barney Valentine and Archibald Nelson Valentine.

James Fuhrman Valentine, youngest son of Bernard/Barnabas, born 1806, PA., would have been 14 in 1810; 24 in 1820; in 1830 living next door to his father, Barnabas Valentine at Hopewell Twp., Perry Co., OH.

Bernard/Barnabas Valentine's family was greatly diminished by 1830, suggesting that Bernard, Jr., his wife, and brother John, had apparently died; Bernard, Jr.'s son, Barney (b 1813, PA) having married, as will be proven, and the remaining male 10/15 in 1830, Archibald Nelson Valentine, b 1815, PA, was still living in the home. Both Archibald Nelson Valentine and Barney Valentine, sons of Bernard, Jr., were the only members of the family who lived in Perry Co., OH.

By 1850, Barney Valentine, b 1813, PA, shoemaker, was living at Monday Twp., Perry Co., OH and Archibald Nelson's family of Perry Co., OH, had moved to Allen Co., OH, near William H. Valentine.

Knowing only James Fuhrman Valentine's birthdate, William, the second eldest son, names given in the family Bible, along with census and other records previously cited, I suggest the following "scenario" subject to further investigation.

Bernard/Barnabas Valentine and his wife, (Mary?) had:

+1. John Valentine, bc 1777, PA; NY?; dc 1830, Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH; m (1) (1811, Sarah Talbot?); m (2) at Fairfield Co., OH, 15 Oct 1818, Nancy McCrory, b 1788/1790 PA, by William Tremble, JP. Bernard/Barnabas would have been age 20 when John was born. In 1810 John would have been age 33, married and out on his own; possibly the Jonothan Valentine (aka John) at Mifflin Co., PA in 1800 and 1810, had a son, Jonothan, who moved to Wash. Co., OH.

2. Catharine Valentine, bc 1779, PA. NY?

3. Mary Valentine, bc 1784, PA. NY?

+4. William H. Valentine, bc 1789, PA; NY?; d before 1850, Allen Co., OH; m at Perry Co., OH (Auglaize Twp., Allen Co., OH) 13 Jan 1824, Hannah Keith, b 1795, VA/OH/PA, daughter of William Keith, Sr. of PA.

+5. Bernard (Barnabas) Valentine, Jr., bc 1790, PA; age 20 in 1810; age 29 in 1819 when he sold his farm at Fermanagh, Mifflin Co., PA; m Jean ---, bc 1792; age 18 in 1810. Living with his father in 1820 at Rush Creek, FF Co., OH with his wife and two sons age 10 and under.

6. Eleanor Valentine, bc 1794, PA; reported inherited the family farm. (m David Neely?)

7. Robert Valentine, bc 1798; age 2 in 1810; age 12 in 1820; Nothing further.

8. Jane Valentine, b 1800, PA m at Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH 8 June 1821, Matthew Neely, d bef 1840. David Neely of Armagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA left a will dated 24 Jan 1818, probated and recorded at Mifflin Co., PA. A certified copy

I suggest that in 1810 at Mifflin Co., PA, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine and his family were living with his son, Bernard Valentine, Jr. and his wife, Jean. In 1820, Bernard, Jr. and his wife were living with Bernard/Barnabas Valentine at Rush Creek, FF Co., OH, and that the two males, 10 and under, were sons of Bernard Valentine, Jr., viz: Barney Valentine and Archibald Nelson Valentine.

James Fishman Valentine, youngest son of Bernard/Barnabas, born 1790?, PA., would have been 16 in 1810; 26 in 1820; in 1830 living next door to his father, Barnabas Valentine at Hopewell Twp., Perry Co., OH.

Bernard/Barnabas Valentine's family was greatly diminished by 1830, suggesting that Bernard, Jr., his wife, and brother John, had apparently died; Bernard, Jr.'s son, Barney (b 1813, PA?) having married, as will be proven, and the remaining male 15/20 in 1830, Archibald Nelson Valentine, b 1815, PA, was still living in the home. Both Archibald Nelson Valentine and Barney Valentine, sons of Bernard, Jr., were the only members of the family who lived in Perry Co., OH.

By 1850, Barney Valentine, b 1813, PA, shoemaker, was living at Monday Twp, Perry Co., OH and Archibald Nelson's family of Perry Co, OH, had moved to Allen Co, OH, near William H. Valentine.

Knowing only James Fishman Valentine's birthdate, William, the second oldest son, names given in the family Bible, along with census and other records previously cited, I suggest the following "scenario" subject to further investigation.

Bernard/Barnabas Valentine and his wife, (Mary?) had:

*1. John Valentine, bc 1777, PA, NJ?; dc 1850, Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH; m (1) (1801), Sarah Talbott?; m (2) at Fairfield Co., OH, 10 Oct 1818, Nancy McCarty, b 1780/1790 PA, by William Trimble, JP. Bernard/Barnabas would have been age 20 when John was born. In 1810 John would have been age 33, married and out on his own; possibly the Jonathan Valentine (aka John) at Mifflin Co., PA in 1800 and 1810, had a son, Jonathan, who moved to Wash. Co., OH.
2. Catherine Valentine, bc 1770, PA, NJ?
3. Mary Valentine, bc 1784, PA, NJ?
*4. William H. Valentine, bc 1789, PA; NJ?; d before 1850, Allen Co., OH; m at Perry Co., OH (Auglaize Twp., Allen Co., OH?) 12 Nov 1824, Rebecca Keith, b 1792, VA/OH/PA, daughter of William Keith, Sr. of PA.
*5. Bernard (Barnabas) Valentine, Jr., bc 1790, PA, age 20 in 1810; age 29 in 1819 when he sold his farm at Coponango, Mifflin Co., PA; m Jean ----, bc 1792?; age 18 in 1810; living with his father in 1820 at Rush Creek, FF Co., OH with his wife and two sons age 10 and under.
6. Ebenezer Valentine, bc 1794, PA; reported inherited the family farm. (m David Neely?)
7. Robert Valentine, bc 1798, age 2 in 1810; age 12 in 1820; Nothing further.
8. Jane Valentine, b 1800, PA m at Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH 3 June 1821, Matthew Neely, d bef 1840. David Neely of Armagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA left a will dated 29 Jan 1818, probated and recorded at Mifflin Co., PA. A certified copy of the will was requested and entered into record at the Court of Common Pleas, Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH. David named his wife, Eleanor (nee Valentine?); daughter, Isabella Reynolds; sons, John, David, James and Robert Neely. Other heirs named were Agnes McCrory, Sarah Work and Elizabeth Neely. In 1820 James Neely was a neighbor of Barnabas and John Valentine. In 1840 Jane Neely was head of the household that had 1 male 5/10, 1 male 10/15, 1 male 15/20, 1 male 20/30, 1 fem. 10/15, 2 fem. 20/30 and 1 female 40/50. (Jane Valentine b 1800)

9. Nancy Valentine, bc 1804; age 6 in 1810; m Andrew Brown ? whose daughter, Nancy Brown was given the family Bible by her grandfather.
10. James Fuhrman Valentine, b 26 Mar 1806, PA; d 20 Aug 1883, (Pauldin Co?) OH; m at Perry Co., OH 16 Aug 1827, Ann Herron, b 7 Sept 1809, Athens Co., OH; d 5 Oct 1888, OH.

John Valentine (1), bc 1777 Pa; dc 1830, Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH; m (1) ? m (2) at Fairfield Co., OH 15 Oct 1818 by William Tremble, JP, Nancy McCrory b 1788/1790, PA.

In 1820, Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH, Roll 87, p 106/7, John Valentine's household consisted of 1 male 10 and under, 1 male 16/18, 1 male 45 and over; 2 females 10 and under, 1 female 26/45. In 1830 Nancy Valentine was head of the household that consisted of 1 male 5/10, 1 male 15/20 , 1 male 20/30; 2 females und. 5; 1 female 5/10; 1 female 10/15, 1 female 15/20 and 1 female 40/50. (Nancy)

In 1840, at Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH, Nancy Valentine's household consisted of 2 males 10/15 (b 1825/30), 1 male 15/20 (b 1820/25; 2 females 10/15 (b 1825/30), 1 female 15/20 (b 1820/25) and 1 female 50/60. (Nancy Valentine, b 1790, PA.)

In 1850 Nancy Volentine, Rush Creek, FF Co., OH, Bremen P. O., was age 60, b 1790, PA, Lucinda, 23, b 1827, OH, Nancy, 21, b 1829, OH, Margaret, 18, b 1831/2, (1830/31) OH., and Emeline Neely, age 2, b 1848, OH. Nancy's daughter, Mary Ann Valentine who married (1) Jeremiah Hillyard, was age 20/30 in 1840 living next door.

In 1860, Rush Creek, FF Co., OH, Bremen P. O., Nancy was age as 72, b PA. Nancy Valentine, age 33, b OH, was still living at home. Also in the home were, Evaline E. Valentine (Neely?) 10, b 1850, OH, Laura Ann Valentine, age 9, b 1851, OH, William H. Valentine, 8, b 1852, OH and Sarah Saffarina, 5, b 1855, OH. (Grandchildren?) At that time Nancy Valentine had a personal value of $30.00. In 1860 Catharine Berry, age 74, b 1786, PA. was living next door to Nancy Valentine. The 1870 Census has not been examined.

As nearly as can be determined, John Valentine and his first wife had:

11. a daughter, bc 1805, OH.
12. Barney Valentine, bc 1810; in 1840, age 20/30 living at Richmond Twp., FF Co., OH; 1 female 20/30, 2 females und. 5; 2 males 5/10 (b 1830/35). Note 2 Update

Introduction

For several months I have wanted to let the descendants of Archibald Nelson Valentine know about recent developments in the search for his ancestors and our own. There have been some surprises but there no longer seems to be any doubt but that Archibald was the grandson of Barnabas, the Revolutionaary War soldier.

What we know of Barnabas is based on information from the National Archives, Washington,D.C.- his military records, his pension records, and a private claim filed for a military land bounty with the 22nd Congress-- and family records preserved by descendants of James Fuhrman Valentine, one of Barnabas' sons.

These family records are in the possession of a descendant in Warsaw, Indiana and at the moment I am told they are unavailable. However, in the past some information was made available to descendants in Ohio, California and Texas. I have been in contact with all three and am confidant I have all of the information they have. I am most appreciative of the work done by Ruth Janice Barton, Lola Avellar, and Maynard Clapp- also for the work done by many others, not descendants but genealogists; Beatrice Valentine, in particular, who pursues all Valentines, and with whom I have corresponded since 1985. Incidentally, in 1988 she was telling me Barnabas was the grandfather of Archibald.

1. Indentured Servitude

According to the descendants of James Fuhrman Valentine, Barnabas' family were engaged in the linen business in Northern Ireland. They owned a bleaching green, bleaching is apparently a step in the making of linen. The process required a supply of small tree branches. Barnabas , and another boy, possibly his brother, were gathering such branches on an island just off the coast one day in 1771, when they were approached by sailers who invited them aboard their ship. They were not allowed to leave,(the ship was short of crew members), and the ship sailed to America.

The other boy, younger was maltreated and died on the voyage. When the docked in Baltimore , Barnabas jumped overboard. He was taken under the wing of a minister, and later enlisted in the army.

I am very dubious of this story. We know now, from a deposition made by a Robert King ,26 Mar 1815, that he and his brother, in order to avoid military service, in 1777, arranged for Barnabas to enlist in the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment, by buying Barnabas' indenture from a Reverend Tompson Smith. This is further supported by an affidavit of General John Steele, Collector for the Port of Philadelphia, executed 28 Sep 1815. In 1777, General Steele, then a Lieutenant in the 10th Pennsylania Regiment, was the officer who enlisted Barnabas.

This story is essientially the same as that told by Aaron Valentine, son of Archibald, to my father in 1903. My father's notes, read, " Grandfather's grandfather while yet a little lad in Ireland was stolen by a boat's Captain and taken to America". Grandfather would be my father's grandfather, i.e., Archibald Nelson Valentine. Archibald's grandfather would be Barnabas.

2. After the War (1783-1807)

Barnabas was discharged in 1783 at Princeton , New Jersey.

The deposition of Robert King states Barnabas returned to Lancaster after the War, but I have been unable to confirm that. In fact I have found no record of Barnabas from 1783 until he shows up on the tax lists of Mifflin County in 1807. A period of twenty-four years is missing.

The story from the descendants of James Fuhrman Valentine is that Barnabas owned a farm which is now part of the site of Bryn Mawr College for Women. Ruth Janice Barton says Barnabas received a land grant from the State of Pennsylvania. This is where he reared his family of five sons and five daughters. I have been unable to verify this story. I have contacted Bryn Mawr College, authorities in Cumberland ,Lancaster, Montgomery, Chester, Snyder, and Deleware Counties. Bryn Mawr sent me a long title history that precludes any ownership by Barnabas. County authorities were unable to find any record of Barnabas, and he is not in the 1790 or 1800 Censuses.

I am presently trying to determine if Barnabas received any military bounty land from the State of Pennsylvania. If he did it might tell us where he was for twenty plus years.

3. Mifflin County, Pennsylvania

When Barnabas shows up in 1807 in Greenwood Township, Mifflin County, he is a poor man. He is taxed on one cow. (No land). Tax records are missing for 1808 through 1810. In 1810 Barnabas is in the Pennsylvania Census for the first time; this Census included a Census of Manufactures, and Barnabas is shown to have an inventory of wool, flax,hempen, a loom, a card, and twenty-five sheep. The assets of a Scots-Irish weaver.

Also in 1810, Barnabas is one of the subscribers to the Walker School. This is mentioned in the History of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys, Phil;adelphia, 1886.

Continuing with the tax lists: in 1811, Barnabas is in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, and identified as a shoemaker.(No land). My searcher didn't find Barnabas in 1812, but in 1813 , Barnabas is listed as having a cow, and a trade. In 1814, Barnabas owns 26 acres in Fermanagh Township. This is true for 1815 and 1816.In 1817, Barnabas is a weaver with 27 acres. Also in 1818 and 1819.

In 1816 the Pennsylvania Assembly enacted An Act for the Relief of Sundry Old Soldiers. In this law , Barnabas is awarded an annuity of $40 for life. This annuity is for ,"clothing and diet". It is to be paid to one David Reynolds, a prominent citizen of Mifflin County, who is to report on his trusteeship to the county's Orphans Court.

As previously mentioned, Barnabas filed for a Federal pension, which had just been authorized by Congress for Revolutionary War veterans who were in need. (Today's "means test"). He was assisted by David Reynolds, and he was awarded $8 per month effective 15 Aug 1818.

In 1819 Barnabas sells his farm and moves to Ohio.

4. The Family in Ohio.

It proved to be very difficult to trace Barnabas' family in Ohio. There were too many Valentines; there were English and German Valentines, and many children. I was looking for Irish or Scots-Irish Valentines. For example there were fourteen Valentines in the 1820 Census for Ohio. Only two were ours, Barnabas and his son, John. (Only heads of household were named). In 1830, the Census included thirty-three Valentines. Barnabas, John and Nancy were named. In 1840 there were forty-five Valentines.

I enclose print outs on Barnabas and his children;these are largely concerned with Ohio.

5. A Tale of Two Letters

One of the most interesting developments this past year was making contact with Ruth Janice Barton, descended from James Fuhrman Valentine, one of Barnabas' sons. She lives in Vermillion , Ohio and sent me much information , including two letters of critical importance.

One, written 3 Aug 1850, by Sarah Jane (Valentine) Neilly, Barnabas' daughter to her brother, James Fuhrman Valentine, reads in part ," Brother, we once was ten but now we are four." The four surviving children of Barnabas, in 1850 were Sarah Jane, Ellen(Eleanor), James Fuhrman, and Barnabas, Jr. It is interesting to note that thirty years after moving to Ohio, the survivors were still in contact.

The second letter, by Barnabas,Jr (1811-), is dated 8 Sep 1851 and also is to James Fuhrman. In this letter, Barnabas,Jr. asks James to get in touch with James Keith who has the Valentine family Bible, and he, Barnaabas, wants to know his birth date. James Keith, had married Barnabas'daughter Nancy in Fairfield County. Nancy was one of the deceased children.

In this letter, Barnabas,Jr. mentions an Archibald Valentine who I believe is our ancestor. I also believe he is the son of John Valentine, (1793-1829). However, at the time there were two other Archibald Valentines in the family; also grandsons of Barnabas. They were Archibald Washington, son of William Valentine, and Archibald Christian, son of James Fuhrman. I base my conclusion on two points, first, Archibald Nelson Valentine (b. 1815) and Barnabas,Jr.(b. 1811) were about the same age, and had likely been reared together and second, Archibald Nelson Valentine was some distance away, in Allen County, and had been there for some time, and was therefore the more likely subject of the query.

6. Related Families

Related families, which I define as those who inter-married with our Valentines, were investigated only to learn more of our ancestors. Some were at least as intersting as the Valentines. They included the Keiths, the Neelys, the Herrons, the McCrorys and the Friends. I enclose print outs on these families.

Bessie (Valentine) Humphrey states, "...Uncle George had four children by his first wife, John, Bessie, Grant and another girl Valentine. I just don't remember her name. and he had four children by his second wife, Clara, Rita, Leta and Ralph." Letter to JoAnn 1970.

George's daughter, Mrs. Leta (Valentine) Mc Comb states, "...My mother was Elizabeth Chalfant who was the widow of Martin Caston when my father married her about the year 1890, however my father had been married before, to who I do not know, he also had five children who were grown up when he married my mother."

It would seem Anna Liza (Isnagle) Valentine died before 1880 as the Auglaize Twp. census for that year lists John Isnagle and his family that includes two granddaughters, Mary and Rosa, ages 7 and 4, who may be presumed to be the children of George Washington Valentine and Anna Liza Isnagle.

Nelson Ora Valentine had this to say about G. W. Valentine's children. "The family of Uncle George Valentine grew up in Indiana and they are scattered over the U.S., some living in Florida and some in other states. In a letter to Jo Ann 1970. Nelson Ora V. also suggests George W. Valentine may have lived in Ossian, Ind., 20 mi. south of Ft. Wayne. Also several of his children.

Mrs. Clayton Valentine (nee Marie Virgin), presently living in Freeport, Mich (1983) in a letter to Jo Ann stated, "I do know that George and Aaron both married Millie (Minnie) Bailey, but I can't remember which one married her first, but I'm pretty sure it was George, for I remember seeing his second wife."

George Washington Valentine m 30 Jan 1862 Anna Liza Isnagle, b Apr 1837, Ind. d by 1880, dau of John Isnagle; m (2) at Allen Co., OH, 10 Feb 1883, Millie Bailey (divorced? She m (2) Aaron Valentine); m (3) at Allen Co., OH, 4 Apr 1885, Belle Fausnaugh; m (4) at Wells Co., Ind., 19 Jul 1892, Elizabeth Chalfant, widow of Martin Caston.

In 1900 George Washington Valentine was living at Jefferson Twp., Wells Co., Ind., as was his son, John M. (N.) Valentine.

Barnabus Valentine

Barnibus Valentine was born in Ireland May 11, 1757. His father owned a bleaching green, and he worked until 14 years of age helping to care for the green and weave linen and bleach it. One of the things he had to do was to keep the spools for the flax, and these he got from an Island close to his home. He would take a small punt and go to the Island and get elders for the spools. His home was close to the water and he was used to going alone sometimes and at other times he would get a neighbor boy to go with him.

One morning he and another boy 12 years old went out to the Island, and while they were there working a boat came along haled them and asked to go out and see their ship. As they had never been near a large vessel they were willing to go as they had enough material for the day already gathered.

Their new friends were very kind and took them on board and showed them all the sights. Then the Boys wanted to go home, and were dismayed to find they were out of sight of land, And were told they were prisoners and must Barnabus was a healthy and strong boy, and took hold and worked his very best, but the other boy only 12 years of age, and small and delicate could not stand the hard work, and hard fair and he grieved for home, and the boatmen were so mean beating him for any little thing. they finally killed him before he landed in America and when the boat came into port (I think in Boston) Barnabas Valentine jumped over board, swam to the shore and hid till the boat left port. Then he looked for a home and found one with a minister with whom he lived until he was 18 years of age.

Then he joined the army and 9 years later he married and owned a farm near Philadelphia the farm is now the present sight of The Bryn Mawr College.

Barnabus and his wife Jane were the parents of 10 Children.

BERNARD vs BARNABAS VALENTINE UPDATE

Archibald Washington Valentine married Mary Ann Thomas at Westville, Champaign Co., OH, per a copy of the license in Carol Alexander's possession. Since Westerville in Franklin Co., OH is much larger and better known, Westville has been mistaken for Westerville. Westville is just five miles west of Urbana in Champaign Co., OH.

Archibald Washington Valentine's sister, Hannah Margaret Valentine, was born in 1848, not Dec. 6., 1846.

10) Barnabas Jr. b.1811 1795?

Barnabas was born of Irish-Protest parents who lived in the Ulster County land on the Irish coast of the North Channel. His parents were weavers and bleachers of linen. His father owned what was called a Bleacher's Green. It has been said that there are still a number of linen factories owned by Valentines today in Ireland. Perhaps Barnabas had brothers whose descendants are still in the linen weaving business.

One day in the year 1771, a ship anchored in the harbor. Most of its crew were sick or had died, so some of those remaining, went ashore to try to find replacements. They could get no men, but picked up two boys, one twelve and the other fourteen years of age. The fourteen year old boy was Barnabas Valentine--his brother's name is unknown. The boys were coaxed to go aboard to see the ship. ? They went but soon discovered that they were prisoners. The ship sailed for the American colonies.

The 12-year old boy died at sea, but Barnabas escaped from the ship when it anchored at Baltimore, Maryland. He stayed hidden until it left.

He enlisted September 9, 1778, * during the Revolutionary fighting and served in Capt. Robert Sample's Company--10th Pennsylvania Regiment, Continental Line, commanded by Col. Richard Humpton or Honpton.

Barnabas married in 1783, his wife's name uncertain. They owned and lived on a farm near Philadelphia, presently the site of Bryn Mawr College for Girls. They raised a family of ten children here.

James' boyhood home was his father's farm on the present location of the Bryn Mawr College near Philadelphia, Pa. (The farm was once known as the Taylor farm; his sister Eleanor acquired possession of the farm after his father's death.)

He married Anna Herron of Athens County, Ohio in the summer of 1827. Apparently he was then living in Ohio.

Elizabeth's parents had a farm in Athens County, Ohio.

After she and James were married and had four children, they traveled by covered wagon to Wisconsin. They lived there twenty years or more. Her father died and was buried in Wisconsin.

Elizabeth took sick and wanted to go back to Troy, Ohio, so they started back and got as far as Payne, Ohio. Here they made another clearing, built another log cabin, and remained the rest of their lives. She and her husband died there and were buried in Lehman cemetery a little south and west of Payne, Ohio.

BERNARD VS BARNABAS VALENTINE

PART FOUR:

5:23, 9:3, 10:1-3, 11:2, 30:3-6, 31:3-6

Bernard (Barney) Valentine, Jr., (5), bc 1785/90, PA, NY, or NJ; married Jean (Jane) ----.

As previously stated, it is more than likely that the household of Bernard Valentine at Fermanagh, Mifflin Co., PA in 1810, was a two-family household; one family being that of his father, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, and the subject, Bernard (Barney) Valentine, who being the landowner, as listed as head of the household.

In 1810 Bernard (Barney) would have been between 21 and 25 (male 16/26); his wife the same, (female 16/26). The male over 45 would have been Bernard's father, Bernard/Barnabas, age 53, and his wife, (female over 45). Two males under 10 would have been sons of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, Robert, bc 1804, and "youngest son", James F., b 26 Mar 1806, PA. One male 16/26 would have been Bernard/Barnabas' son, William H. Valentine, bc 1790/4, then unmarried and still living at home. Two females under 10 were daughters of Bernard/Barnabas or the subject, Bernard Valentine.

Eight years later, on 15 Aug 1818, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, age about 60, applied for his Revolutionary War service pension, as a poor shoemaker with a wife who was feeble, living with their second eldest son, William H. Valentine.

On 5 Mar 1819, the subject Bernard Valentine, a miller, and his wife, Jean, sold their 21-acre farm for $200.00 at Fermanagh Twp. Mifflin Co., PA to Hugh McAlister. Bernard would have been about 29/34 and his father, Bernard/Barnabas, age 62. Between 1819 and 1820, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine and his sons moved to Rush Creek, Fairfield Co., OH.

In 1820, Bernard/Barnabas was listed as "Barnabas" Valentine, head of the household, over 45 (63), which was his true given name, shortened to Bernard when he entered service. Bernard/Barnabas's wife was over 45. In the home were sons, Robert (male 10/16), James F. (male 10/16); two males 16/26 were William H. Valentine, still living at home, and most likely, the subject, Bernard Valentine. There were also two males under 10, bc 1813 and 1815, when Barnabas would have been between 56 and 58, and his wife, also in her fifties, known to be feeble in 1818, which makes it unlikely she would have been the mother of the two boys under age ten. I suggest they were grandsons, sons of their son, the subject, Bernard Valentine, i.e., Bernard Valentine, III b 1813 and Archibald Nelson Valentine, b 1815; both born PA.

By 1830, Bernard/Barnabas, still listed as "Barnabas" Valentine, was living at Hopewell Twp., Perry Co., OH (which is where he died; NOT at Fairfield Co., OH), age 60/70 (73), his wife, 60/70, and one male 10/15, who was Archibald Nelson Valentine who did not marry until 1837. James F. Valentine, Bernard/Barnabas Valentine's youngest son was married and living next door to his father.

In 1840 one Barney Valentine was living at Richland Twp., Fairfield Co., OH, located kitty-corner to Rush Creek Twp., FF Co., OH. At the time, Barney was 20/30 (b 1810/20), his wife, 20/30 (b 1810/20), 2 fem. und 5 (b 1835/40) and 2 males 5/10 (b 1830/35). This Barney Valentine could not have been a son of Bernard/Barnabas as he was bc 1810/20, after Bernard/Barnabas Valentines youngest son, James F. who was born in 1806. Barney is more likely to have been a son of John Valentine and Nancy McCrory, as he lived closer to Nancy Valentine, wife of deceased John Valentine.

In 1850, Barnabas Valentine, 37, b 1812, PA, a shoemaker, and Jane Valentine, 25, b 1825, OH (wife or sister), were living at Monday Creek Twp., Perry Co., OH. William Ross, age 23 and Mary Ross, age 18, were living in the same home. There were no children. Barnabas was a shoemaker like his grandfather, and no doubt, son of the subject, Bernard Valentine.

It should be noted that William H. Valentine, son of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, named a son Archibald Washington Valentine, James Fuhrman Valentine, son of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, named a son, Archibald Christian Valentine, and the subject, Bernard Valentine, son of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, named a son, Archibald Nelson Valentine. The name, Barney, has been carried down in Archibald Nelson Valentine's family.

One could easily assume that Bernard/Barnabas Valentine's father was Archibald Valentine. There is a record on the LDS IGI that John Valentine and Siballa Kilgour had Archibald Valentine ch. 23 Nov 1735, Blairgowrie Parish, Perth, Scotland, cleared, Batch #C113352, 1918.

Bernard Valentine and Jean (Jane)——, had:

- x Barnabas Valentine, III, b 1812/13, PA, age 37 in 1850, a shoemaker, living at Monday Creek Twp., Perry Co., OH with Jane Valentine, b 1825, OH, near his grandfather.
- x Archibald Nelson Valentine, b 5 Dec 1815, PA; d 1897, Montclair, MI (Woodland Twp., Barry Co., MI); m at Fairfield Co., OH by Moses Milligan, 23 Mar 1837, Margaret Clum, b 20 Jan 1817, OH; d 24 Jan 1886, Ionia Co., MI, dau of George Clum and Catharine Ortman.

According to family history, Archibald Nelson Valentine's farm was located partly in Perry and Fairfield Counties, OH. Two or three of Archibald's children were born in Perry Co., OH. By 1850, the family had moved to Auglaize Twp., Allen Co., OH, and lived near his uncle, William H. Valentine, (then deceased) and his wife, Hannah Keith, where they were still living in 1860. Between 1860 and 1870 the family moved to Ionia County, Michigan.

A death certificate has not been located for Archibald Nelson Valentine, however a letter dated 29 Sept 1983 to Thad M. Taylor from an elderly relative states that she was the widow of Clayton Blane Valentine and was raised in Indiana. She didn't meet many of the older Valentines, only at family reunions, "but we haven't had a family reunion in 16 years...I will be 90 years old next July. My husband and children are buried at Lakeside and I think I know where his grandparents are buried. (Archibald Nelson Valentine and his wife, Margaret Clum) but I don't think there's any marker or

In 1840 one Harvey Valentine was living at Richland Twp., Fairfield Co., OH, located kitty-corner to Rush Creek Twp., [illegible] Co., OH. At the time, Harvey was 20/30 (b 1810/20), his wife, 30/40 (b 1800/10), 2 sons, [illegible] (b 1825/30) and 2 under 5/10 (b 1830/35). This Harvey Valentine could not have been a son of Bernard/Barnabas as he was b 1810/20, prior Bernard/Barnabas Valentines youngest son, James F. who was born in 1823. Harvey is more likely to have been a son of John Valentine and Nancy McCreary, as he lived closer to Betsy Valentine, wife of deceased John Valentine.

In 1850, Barnabas Valentine, 67, b 1783, PA, a shoemaker, and Jane Valentine, 65, b 1785, OH (Jane or Jinney), were living at Monday Creek Twp., Perry Co., OH. William Moss, age 25 and Mary Moss, age 20, were living in the same house. There were no children. Barnabas was a shoemaker like his grandfather, and so [illegible], son of the subject, Bernard Valentine.

It should be noted that William H. Valentine, son of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, named a son Archibald Washington Valentine. James Pitcairn Valentine, son of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, named a son, Archibald Chriselon Valentine, and the subject, Bernard Valentine, son of Bernard/Barnabas Valentine, named a son, Archibald Nelson Valentine. The name, Harvey, has been carried down in Archibald Nelson Valentine's family.

One could easily assume that Bernard/Barnabas Valentine's father was Archibald Valentine. There is a record in the IGI of Agst Ann Valentine and Phoebe Kinggus had Archibald Valentine ch. 22 Nov 1750, Dalrymple Parish, Perth, Scotland, [illegible], PO11482, 1910.

Bernard Valentine and Jean (Jane) ——, had:

x Barnabas Valentine, (?), b 1782/83 PA, age 67 in 1850, a shoemaker, living at Monday Creek Twp., Perry Co., OH with Jane Valentine, b 1785, OH, were his grandfather

  Cline, b 20 Jan 1817, OH; d 28 Jan 1891, Ionia Co., MI, dau of George Cline and Catherine Ortman.

According to family history, Archibald Nelson Valentine's farm was located partly in Perry and Fairfield Counties, OH. Twelve of Archibald's children were born in Perry Co., OH. By 1850, the family had moved to Angelica Twp., Allen Co, IN, and lived near his uncle, William H. Valentine, (then deceased) and his wife, Frances Smith, where they were still living in 1860. Between 1860 and 1870 the family moved to Ionia County, Michigan.

A death certificate has not been located for Archibald Nelson Valentine, however a letter dated 28 Sept 1932 to Thad K. Taylor from an elderly relative states that she was the widow of Clayton Ulysses Valentine and was raised by Indians. She didn't see many of the other Valentines, only at family reunions, that we haven't had a family reunion in 30 years, I will be 90 years old next July. My husband and children are buried at [illegible] and I think I know where his grandparents are buried, Archibald Nelson Valentine and his wife, Margaret Cline but I don't think they have any marker or dates, but his son, Wilbert Nelson (Valentine) and Martha Valentine have a nice marker as well as a family lot there...I am sending an old clipping of my husband's father's death in 1937 (Wilbert Nelson Valentine). He was the last of a large family of boys and two girls of Archibald's family...In closing I just have to tell you that I am glad the family name of Nelson is going on. We had one son, James Nelson, but he was killed in service in 1952. Now we don't have a grandson to carry our Valentine family on....I still live alone on the corner where I have lived the last 66 years and doing quite well with a lot of help from my family of three girls and all the neighbors. Everyone is so good to me! Thank you for listening to me. Marie Valentine, RR #1, Freeport, Michigan.

Barnabas (Bermard) Valentine (1757-1831)

I Introduction

A. The name.

This is the story of Barnabas Valentine. Barnabas seldom used that name; in the army it was Bernard, Barney, and Barnard. In the 1810 Census for Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania it was Bernard. He used Bernard in applying for his Revolutionary War pension in 1818. In the 1820 Census for Fairfield County, Ohio it was Bernard or Barnabas, as there is some doubt as to whether he was in Lancaster or Rush Creek Township. When he filed his Military Bounty Land claim with the War Department, it was first Barnabas, but later Bernard was used. When his son James Fuhrman Valentine file for survivor's benefits, he referred to his father as Barnabas.

I will use the name Barnabas though out this story, but I will add (Bernard), where that name is used in lieu of Barnabas , as in a document.

Lola Avellar in her Valentine Genealogy gives Barnabas' birthdate as 11 May 1757 in Ireland.

Barnabas (Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

I. Introduction

B. Acknowledgements.

Much of the information used in this biography is from Beatrice Valentine, Lola Avellar, and Mrs. Maynard L. Clapp. Lola Avellar is descended from Barnabas, as is Maynard L. Clapp. Beatrice Valentine publishes the Valentine Newsletter, from Aptos, California.

It was my efforts to find the ancestors of Archibald Nelson Valentine that led me to Barnabas. All I knew of Archibald was what my neice, JoAnn Valentine had learned from a number of relatives, in 1969 and 1970, many of whom are now dead. There was also the story I found in my father's notes of a trip he and his sister made from Clarksville, Michigan to Harrod, Ohio in 1903. There in a discussion with his uncle,Aaron Valentine, Aaron told him, "Grandfather Valentine's grandfather while yet a little lad in Ireland was stolen by a boat captain and brought to America."

It was Beatrice Valentine who first found Bernard Valentine in Fairfield County, Ohio and sensed a connection with Archibald.She put me in touch with Lola Avellar, who directed me to Mrs. Clapp.Beatrice supplied me with Bernard' pension records, and Lola with the Valentine Genealogy that referred to Barnabas. Lola has stated (3 Jan 1989) that she got much information, about Barnabas, I think, from Mrs. Clapp. It is possible that much of the Valentine Genealogy, that I have attributed to Lola came from Mrs. Clapp, who was responding to Lola's advertisement in the Genealogical Helper, for Sept-Oct, 1978, seeking the birthplace of Bernard Valentine.

Because of certain contradictions I was reluctant to accept that Bernard and Barnabas were the same individual. For example, the military records were in the name of Barnard, Barney, and Bernard;never in the name of Barnabas. Also Bernard was shown to have died in Ohio, and Barnabas in Philadelphia. All doubts were resolved however, when after Bernard's death in Ohio, James Fuhrman Valentine filed his survivor's claim against Bernard's account, referring to his father as Barnabas, and filing Bernard's pension documents in support of the claim. We even have the claim number, S 40616.

Dear Mrs. Green:

Carl Valentine of Columbus, Ohio has told me your husband is a descendant of William and Hannah(Keith) Valentine. I have concluded , at least tentatively, after thirteen years of digging that the above William is the son of one Barnabas Valentine (1757-1831), who served in the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment. Can you verify this ? If not, can you identify William's parents ? And those of Hannah?

Incidentally, my great grandfather, Archibald Nelson Valentine, had a son George Washington Valentine, (1840-1928) who farmed at Ossian, Indiana.

MINUTES OF THE VALENTINE REUNION - AUG. 4, 1996

The 75th annual Valentine reunion was held August 4th, 1996 at the CENTER in Plattsville, Ohio. The hall ceiling was enhanced with tied bunches of balloons and the dining tables were covered with white table cloths with a red ribbon running down the middle and topped with vases of red carnations to commemorate the 75th reunion anniversary.

The Hall was opened early to accommodate the setup committee in preparing the hall for the festivities. Other early arrivals pitched in to assist in this endeavor. Under the watchful eye of the Pres. (Sgt. Sherry) and armed with her task list the job was completed in an orderly fashion.

After the setup and during the registration period the 74 attendees spent time visiting with relatives and viewing the many restored photos of ancestors. New photos added to the collection as follows: John Estabrook (husband of Rachael Valentine); another photo of Rachael Valentine; Marriage photo of Bertha Estabrook and Henry Perkins; Cyrus King Valentine and wife Mary South; Richard Louis Valentine (son of Cyrus King) and wife Lucy Marion Carberry; and Doris Valentine, daughter of Richard Lewis.

With the joining of hands and bowed heads the Lord's prayer recited in unison, was followed by a buffet style dinner served from tables laden with covered dishes of food provided by guests.

Upon completion of dinner, a game for children involving placing a potato on the foot and the one walking the farthest without losing the potato was the winner. Then an adult game, three lines of nine people each, the task, with work gloves on each hand, to unwrap a stick of gum. Then pass the gloves and gum to next person in line. The first line to finish declared the winner. Then the standard pack game, teams of people assigned an animal, then milling about making sounds relative to the animal until a team joined all the members of the same pack and declared the winner.

After the games; drawings were made for door prizes and also for a fifty/fifty drawing. Pat Wiegman won the 50\50.

The business meeting was then called to order by Pres. Sherry Monnier. The previous minutes were read by Sec. Sally Yeager and were approved as corrected. The correction being in the birth announcements from Blendon Burke to Brandon Burke and naming the parents as Julia & Brit Burke

The treasurer's report was given by Treas. Kaye Vordemark. Motion to approve Treas. report by Forrest Valentine & seconded by Pete Jacobs. Motion passed.

Donald Valentine of Newbury, Vermont gave an interesting talk on genealogy and Family Trees.

MINUTES OF THE VALENTINE REUNION - AUG. 6, 1995

The 74th annual Valentine reunion was held August 6, 1995 at the K of C hall (Knights of Columbus) 1300 Fourth Ave., Sidney, Ohio. The hall ceiling was decorated with colored balloons and the dining tables were covered with decorative table cloths. After a period of registrations, visiting, and sharing talk with other guests, the call was made for dinner. With bowed heads the Lord's prayer, recited in unison, was followed by a bountiful buffet style dinner from tables laden with covered dishes of food provided by the many guests.

Upon completion of dinner, and after the drawing for the 50/50 prize awarded to Vivian Kaiser, a hilarious game of "Join The Pack" was introduced and played by the guests. The game started with guests selecting balloons that contained names of different animals. The participants were required to mill around and make sounds similar to those made by their selection until all animals of the same pack became united (Can you imagine a large group of people milling around--some braying; crowing; roaring; barking; quacking). The quackers won the game very easily.

Door prizes each awarded by requiring guests to turn his/her chair upside down to see a "prize sticker" attached to the bottom, no sticker- no prize.

A professional clown/juggler then appeared and after a performance in the dining hall, the children and the clown removed themselves to the shelter house where the clown entertained the children.

T-shirts, with the logo "Valentine" and inscribed four times with "#1" over the Valentine heart symbol, were presented by Susan Fischer to Carl and Forrest Valentine and Wilma (Valentine) Umstead. Reunion officers, Pres. Sherry (Valentine) Monnier; Secy. Sally (Valentine) Yeager; and Treas. Kaye (Valentine) Vordemark were also recipients.

The business meeting was called to order by president Sherry Monnier. Minutes of the previous reunion of 1994 read by secretary Sally Yeager were approved as read. There being no old business; Kaye Vordemark, treasurer presented the expenses for 1995. Moved by Pete Jacobs and seconded by Forrest Valentine that the expenses be approved as presented. Motion passed.

Letters and cards from cousins were read, as follows: June Valentine Locke, Oregon; Catherine Sandham Russsell, Michigan; Beatrice Valentine, California; Donald Valentine, Vermont; Richard and Dorothy Slepicka, Arizona; Anna Valentine Cooper, Dayton Ohio; Yvonne Masters, Idaho; Kathleen Heighton, Tipp City Ohio; Chester Kennett, Colorado; Frank Valentine, New York. Cards were sent to shut-ins.

The oldest, the youngest, and the farthest traveling guest were announced: Horace Risk a spry 88 years young; Christina Crusey at 29 months; Wayne and Eleanor Smith from California.

Birth announcements -- Blendon Burke b. July 7 1995, (Parents name unavailable); Rachael Sandham, a daughter to Mark and Lisa Sandham b. September 18 1994; Cassidy Marie Cooper, a daughter to Debra and Frederick J. Cooper Jr. b. June 30 1995. Marriage announcements -- Heather Nicole Combs and Tony (no date or last name available); Stephanie Holub and Danny Carter June 18, 1994; Deanna Holub and Kelly Wooley June 4 1995; Todd Sandham and Paula Sullivan August 26, 1995.

Death announcements -- Charles Monnier, June 21 1995 (Husband of president Sherry); Ellen Hart October 24, 1994; Thelma Mathews October 22 1995; Paul E Martin, March 4 1995; Ruby Martin (wife of Paul) May 14 1995.

First time guests and others were recognized and gave brief introductions. The 83 guests registered, represented the largest gathering since 1949 when 100 guests registered. In 1984, the minutes recorded an attendance of 82 guests. Minute records are available only since 1941. An attempt was made in 1954 to locate missing records through 1940. When reported by the committee, they were unable to locate the lost records.

Advisory Committee -- Carl Valentine mentioned the display of an array of family photographs and also photos of the building of the local Lockington dam (one of a series of dams built after the disastrous floods of 1913). Prints of family photos are available. An apology was made for the absence of the inscribed "Valentine Tile" of 1892 commemorating the gathering of Valentines in that year.

The floor was open for other remarks. With no remarks by other guests, the nomination for the election of officers for the following year was opened by the President. A motion made by Ethel Jackson that the present officers be retained in office for the following year, seconded by Emma Nell Pohlshnieder. Motion passed. Officers reelected were Pres. Sherry Monnier; Secy. Sally Yeager; and Treas. Kaye Vordemark.

A motion made by Martha Rotert, that the next reunion be held the 1st Sunday of August 1996, seconded by Susie Fischer. Motion passed.

An announcement was made that bingo would be played after the entertainment and after adjournment. Meeting adjourned and Karen Slaybaugh entertained the guests with several vocal arrangements with her own instrumental accompaniment.
Comments: We were happy to welcome all guests and among those this year were first timers and other almost first timers: (1) Richard F Valentine and wife Elsie from Bethel Park, Pennsylvania; (2) Wayne M Smith and wife Eleanor from San Jose, California. Richard and Wayne are cousins. They share the same great grandparents, William B Valentine and Harriet Matilda Campbell; (3) Robert Weimer and wife Ruth;

Minutes of the Valentine Reunion - Aug. 7, 1994

The seventy 3rd annual Valentine Reunion was held August 7, 1994 at the "Center" in Plattsville, Ohio. There were fifty eight guests registered. Among those were out of state guests from New York, West Virginia and Florida. Within Ohio, guests came from Columbus, Sidney, Westerville, Dayton, Piqua, Minster, Troy, Celina, Anna, Cinncinnati, Ludlow Falls, Miamisburg and St Marys.

The "Center" gave a festive aura with many colored balloons floating against the ceiling, decorative table cloths and table favors in the form of red candied Valentine heart shaped candies.

Following the blessing given by Beth (Douglas) Kelly, the guests shared in a bountiful dinner from a covered dish style buffet brought by family members.

After the dinner hour, the meeting was called to order by Pres. Sherry Monnier. Door prizes were awarded by retrieving the balloons from the ceiling (young and old participated with gusto). Guests holding the right color of balloon were rewarded with a small gift. This was an enjoyable event.

The oldest guest, Marie (Valentine) Ridgeway received the honor, being a spry 92 years young. The youngest guest was Christina Crusey, the daughter of Mr & Mrs Philip Crusey at seventeen months. Christina is the grand daughter of Dave and Lynn (Valentine) Crusey. Each Honoree received a small gift.

REMARKS:
Carl Valentine reviewed the old photos of Valentine ancestors arrayed on a table. And explained the heritage of the encased and inscribed 8" clay field tile along with the companion photo that was taken on October 4th 1892. Also remarked that Frank Valentine had written a poem about Luther Valentine a young civil war soldier killed in battle. And mentioned that 273 reunion announcements were mailed, with about 12 returned as undeliverable---Terry Valentine related a happening of how he obtained a gold pocket watch containing a photo that was inscribed as a gift from "Mother to Monnie Valentine" it was dated 1903. He is trying to find the family. Terry also came across a book in an antique shop covering 1875 -1900 and containing photos of Valentines---Philip W Valentine mentioned the Shelby County Deer Hunter Assoc., and the part that ancestor Richard Valentine had in its formation. More on this next year. ---Bette Crotenger thanked the committee for the hospitality of the reunion---Other remarks and thoughts: Different sites for reunion; Week end affair; Social night; Site-seeing; Cookout;

The Treasurer's report for 1994 was given by President Sherry in the absence of Treasurer Kaye Vordemark. It was moved by Beth Kelly and seconded by Tim Pohlschneider that the report be approved. Motion Passed. The Secretary, Sally Yeager read the minutes of the 1993 meeting. It was moved by Forrest Valentine and seconded by Debra Miculka that the minutes be approved as read. Motion passed.

Get well cards were sent to Ellen Hart and Lori Brown---One death reported of Donel Valentine---Two marriages reported (names not listed)---First timers at reunion; Tim Pohlschneider and Philip W Valentine---Letters were read from persons unable to attend reunion. Contributions of $70.00 were enclosed.

UNDER NEW BUSINESS: Tim Pohlschneider moved and Philip Valentine seconded that next reunion be held at the Plattsville "Center" on August 6th 1995, the first Sunday in August. Motion passed... Beth Kelly moved and Jim Valentine seconded that officers and committee be returned for 1995. Motion passed.

Pres. Sherry announced that Bingo and a fifty/fifty drawing would be forth coming after adjournment---Beth Kelly moved and Debra Miculka seconded to adjourn the meeting. Meeting adjourned at 2:45 pm.

Sally Yeager - Secretary

Pres. Sherry later announced that contributions to the treasury:

From bingo	$ 39.25
From fifty/fifty	$ 26.00
From guests	$ 173.37

Betty
Dear ~~Betty~~: sorry, I had Barbara here

Can you tell me if there has been a printing of the following :

1. bitths 1900 forward ? need many up to 1930
2. marriages 1900 to 1930
3. deaths, 1900 forward

My husbands family/s are all from Shelby Co. but since none of the older ones are alive I have no one to turn to . I have gotten much info. from Shelbyana and I also have in my possession the "History of Shelby County ,Ohio With Illustrations dated 1883. Feel free to print in Shelbyana that I have the above book

Thank you for any help you might give on the above requests

Sincerely,
Lucy Green

The Valentine Family

During the colonial period, back almost a century prior to the Revolution, about the year 1680, the Valentines were found among sturdy Dutch immigrants who sought the ~~hospitality~~ HOSPITALITY of the western world. On reaching America they settled in N.Y., but later drifted to N. Jersey where several generations of the family stayed, and where decendents of the original stock may still be found.

The Ohio Valley ~~became~~. was as yet almost untracted, unknown and very wild. Many ~~thousands~~ headed west to that valley and it soon became the ~~th~~ home of teeming thousands.

At this period in time Daniel Valentine (a brother of *Wm. Their father was Obadiah) Wm. is Lester Hathaway (1930-) Great g g g grandfather) was born in N.J. (1776)-1849 We can only assume the rest of the immediate family was born in N.J. also. - Some moved to Mass & later to Ohio.

BIOGRAPHIES.

THE VALENTINE FAMILY.

Away back during the colonial period, back almost a century prior to the Revolution, back about the year 1680, the Valentines were found among those sturdy Dutch immigrants who sought the hospitality of the western world, which was as yet too young to have reared oppression, tyranny, or persecution. On reaching America they settled in New York, but a little later drifted to New Jersey, where several generations of the family name have passed their lives, and where the descendants of the original stock may still be found. In the course of years the Revolution was fought out, and its close inaugurated a new era of immigration, for the "star of empire" at this period resumed its westward course.

The Ohio Valley, with the vast expanse of territory north and west, was yet an almost untracked, unknown, and inhospitable wild. Obeying the same irresistible law to which the celestial stars are subject, the "star of empire" of migration moved westward, until it paused for a moment and shed its benignant beams upon the valley of the Ohio, until that valley became the home of teeming thousands.

It was at this period of general agitation and public ferment that Daniel Valentine was born in New Jersey. His natal year was also that of the nation, for he was born in 1776, the year in which the nation sprang into being. His youth was spent amid the excitements incident to the Revolutionary War and the western expeditions of Clarke, of Harmar, of St. Clair, and ere he had attained his majority General Wayne had terms of peace to the Indians of the Northwest. He had heard in the Northwest, and looked Fergus, a daughter of Joseph Fergus. By this union they have one child, Mamie B. Mr. Valentine is a resident and owner of the old homestead of his father, a view of which is shown in this work.

Thomas H. Fergus, a son of Samuel M. and Eliza A. (Hull) Fergus, was born in Shelby County in 1854. Married Mary A. Valentine, a daughter of Richard W. Valentine, in 1876. They have three children, Frank P., Lottie E., and Leonard C. They reside on section 23, near Kirkwood, on part of the Valentine farm.

David Valentine, the fifth of the family of Daniel Valentine, was born about two years after his father settled on the banks of the Great Miami. He was born May 12, 1811. He lived on the farm with his father until eighteen years of age, when he went to learn the blacksmith trade with his brother Richard. He served an apprenticeship of three years, then continued to work at his trade for six years. During this time he taught one term of school, for which he received $6.25 per month. In 1837 he bought a small piece of land from Thomas Young, in section 23. March 14, 1838, he married Nancy Cecil, a sister of Mrs. Richard W. Valentine. They shortly afterwards settled on this little farm. It was not long before he had added to his home fifty acres more land. In a few years he, together with his brother Richard, bought the home place of his father; then a few years later he bought his brother's interest, and moved on to the old homestead. They raised a family of five children, as follows: Cynthia A., Milton, Lewis, John H., and Ellen. Only three are now living.

Mr. Valentine was an industrious and energetic man, and lived to accumulate a fine property. Before he died he was the owner of about 700 acres of land in the county, he being one of the wealthiest men in the township at the time of his death. He died in 1867 on the same farm on which he was born. His widow is living on the old homestead, where her husband was born, with her son, John H.

William Cecil, the father of Mrs. Richard W. and Mrs. David Valentine, was married to Betsey Guthrie in 1809, in Virginia, and came to Shelby County in 1814, and located on what is now the Infirmary farm.

Milton Valentine, a son of David Valentine, was born in Orange Township in 1844. He was raised on a farm, and educated in the common schools of his neighborhood. In 1869 he married Matilda Myers, a daughter of Harman and Matilda Farrow Myers. She was born in Shelby County in 1853. Mr. Valentine is located on section 23, where he has one of the best improved farms in the township. In fact it is a model farm.

John H. Valentine, another son of David Valentine, was born in 1849. He also was raised on a farm. In 1872 he was married to Sarah Jane Taylor. By this union they have four children, viz., Anna B., born 1873; Otella M., born 1876; Maggie D., born 1879; and Joseph C., born 1881. John H. is now the owner of the old homestead of his grandfather and his father, it being one of the first settled farms of the county, settled in 1809.

The Ohio Valley, with the vast expanse of territory north and west, was yet an almost untracked, unknown, and inhospitable wild. Obeying the same irresistible law to which the celestial stars are subject, the "star of empire" of migration moved westward, until it paused for a moment and shed its benignant beams upon the valley of the Ohio, until that valley became the home of teeming thousands.

It was at this period of general agitation and public ferment that Daniel Valentine was born in New Jersey. His natal year was also that of the nation, for he was born in 1776, the year in which the nation sprang into being. His youth was spent amid the excitements incident to the Revolutionary War and the western expeditions of Clarke, of Harmar, of St. Clair, and ere he had attained his majority General Wayne had dictated terms of peace to the Indians of the Northwest. He had heard and read of all these stirring occurrences in the Northwest, and looked upon the admission of Ohio into the sisterhood of States from his distant home in New Jersey; but, in 1805, the tide was too strong, and he was carried with it to the Mad River Valley, of which he had read and dreamed for years. In 1799 he had married Rachel Winans, and six years later they were found within the present limits of Champaign County, where they remained about four years.

In the year 1809 they moved within the present boundaries of Orange Township, near where the old Berry mill was afterward erected. At this time the family consisted of four small children, and this family probably constituted the fourth within the township, the other three, as nearly as can be ascertained, being the Cannon, Berry, and Phillips families, who probably settled here prior to 1809.

Daniel Valentine entered land immediately upon his arrival here, but was only able to make partial payment, and so was under the necessity of borrowing the greater portion of the purchase money. Still he was not dependent upon the farm alone, for he carried with him the skill of a shoemaker, and at the outset found himself in command of this trade for an area greater that which is now comprised within the whole county. In 1820 his wife died, and a few years later he married Isabel Jameson, who survived him several years, his death having occurred in 1849.

From the date of his arrival here in 1809 up to the time of his death he continued a permanent resident of Orange Township, and was one of the leading spirits of the settlement.

One of his sons, Richard W. Valentine, an honored pioneer of this county, is now living a retired life, somewhat enfeebled, but surrounded by the comforts of life, and in the full enjoyment of the respect of the whole community.

He was one of the four children already mentioned as comprising his father's family in 1809, and was born in Champaign County in 1806. He was thus three years of age when his parents took their second step westward, and settled in a country largely occupied by the red man and animals of different species His education was such as was diffused by virtue of short school terms held in the proverbial log house, so characteristic of the early days of every Western community. When he reached his sixteenth year he was apprenticed by his father to a blacksmith, named Alexander Moreland, with whom he remained until he reached his majority.

In 1828 he opened the first blacksmith shop within the township at the old site of Berry's mill. The following year, or 1829, he married Miss Annaliza, daughter of William and Betsy Cecil. She was born in Virginia in the year 1811, and was brought to this county by her parents in 1814.

After his marriage Mr. Valentine continued working at his trade, until failing health compelled him to abandon his forge and seek other employment. He had purchased fifty-five acres of timber land, which he cleared, and to which he has since added about two hundred and fifty acres, making about three hundred acres in his home farm, while elsewhere within the county he owns some five hundred acres, making in all about eight hundred acres. Such is the reward of industry, perseverance, and economy, that no man in the enjoyment of health should know such word as fail. Mr. Valentine may be said to have battered and drilled those acres out of his anvil, for at the outset he stood with empty hands. The rewards of industry and honesty are his to-day, as evidenced by his comfortable home surroundings, and the esteem in which he is held by a whole community. He has reared a family of seven children, five of whom are still living. Their names and dates of birth are as follows: Samuel, born 1832; John, born 1836; Rachael, born 1840; William, born 1843; and Mary, born 1856.

Since writing the above we learn of the death of Richard W. Valentine. He died April 12, 1882, and was buried at Wesley Chapel, April 14th, by the Masonic fraternity, of which he had been a consistent member for many years.

William C. Valentine, a son of Richard W., was born in 1843; was married to Mary C. Higgins in 1865. She died in 1872, leaving two children, viz., Estella E. and Frances R. In 1874 he married Sarah C. Fergus, a daughter of Joseph Fergus. By this union they have one child, Mamie B. Mr. Valentine is a resident and owner of the old homestead of his father, a view of which is shown in this work.

The plat consisted of nine lots, four by eight rods. It is located on the D. & M. R. R., six miles south of Sidney. The first building erected was by G. W. Holley in 1863. It was a small warehouse for the purchase of grain, but before commencing operations he sold to D. K. Gillespie, who enlarged the capacity and commenced buying grain in 1864. The next place of business was a store built by H. S. Gillespie & Thomas McKee in 1866. Gillespie & McKee were succeeded by J. G. & Andrew Robinson. The latter sold his interest to J. G. Robinson, who carried on the business for several years, then sold to J. L. McKee, who is the present occupant. Kirkwood contains only nine dwellings, and has about forty-five or fifty inhabitants. It has one store, one grain elevator, one blacksmith shop, one physician (J. J. Millhouse), one U. B. Church, and one school-house. There is not, perhaps, a shipping point in the county that buys and ships more grain than this place.

In 1840 the society built a brick church in the south part of the township, near the Miami County line, and it is known as Wesley Chapel.

Spring Creek Baptist Church.

The following sketch of this church is taken from one written by Richard A. Denman for the Miami Union Association in 1879. This society originally was known as the Salem Church, and dates its existence from about 1816, at which time they met in private houses for worship; but eventually built a log cabin on the banks of Spring Creek, which served the purpose well for a time, as the settlement was sparse.

There were a number of the members of the church living in Piqua and its immediate vicinity who had no means of conveyance of their own. Therefore a move was made to remove the place of meeting to Piqua. It was objected to at first, but upon due deliberation the country members withdrew their objections, and decided to go to town. At this time Elder Willis Hance was pastor of Salem Church; he was so much of a pioneer woodsman that he could not consent to go to town as pastor, and preach to the lawyers, doctors, and gentry; but put him in the log cabin or leafy grove, and he could wield the sword of the spirit with power.

The Rev. Daniel Bryant became the first pastor, and preached the first sermon to the church in its new location. At this time Elder Bryant lived in Hamilton, Ohio. The distance was so great, and having to travel on horseback, he soon gave up the pastorate, and Elder J. L. Moore was called to fill his place. The church in Piqua now having become numerically strong, and the members of Spring Creek not having lost their preference for country life, some twenty-one of them counselled together as to the propriety of asking letters of dismission from Piqua, in order to join in a church constitution on Spring Creek. On the first

The town was originally called Pontiac, but owing to the fact that there was another town and post-office of the same name, it was changed to that of Kirkwood in 1879, in honor of D. Kirkwood Gillespie, the proprietor of the elevator at that place.

CHURCHES.

United Brethren Church.

As early as 1816 or 1817 the missionary preacher of the United Brethren Church came to the wilds of this township to preach the gospel to the scattered few who had found their way to this almost unbroken wilderness. Here he found a few who had formerly belonged to this denomination; among them the Valentines and Youngs. The first public religious service held within the present limits of this township was held at the house of Daniel Valentine about 1816 or 1817. We cannot learn that there was any class or society formed until several years afterward, when a class was formed at the house of Jacob Boyer. The class consisted of Daniel Valentine and wife, Jacob Boyer and wife, Thomas Young and wife, E. Boggs and wife, — Heath and wife, and — Kerns and wife. Meetings were held at the home of Jacob Boyer and others for years. In 1844 the place of worship was changed to a school-house near the present site of Kirkwood, where it continued a couple of years, then was removed to the house of Isaac Evans, near where the Berry Mill formerly stood. In 1847 they erected a frame church on the land of R. W. Valentine, near the site of the present church. This church was about thirty by forty feet square, and built by James Fergus, under the supervision of George Warvel, the preacher in charge, and was dedicated the same year. The trustees were Isaac Young, E. Boggs, Daniel and Jacob Rasor, and Isaac Evans. This house was used as a place of worship until 1876, when a more neat and commodious structure was erected in Kirkwood. This church was built under the administration of E. Counselor at a cost of about $2500. The trustees of the new church at the time of its erection were, James Fergus, Isaac Young, Milton Valentine, J. H. Valentine, W. B. Lefferson, Wm. Baily, and David Dunn. The present pastor is R. W. Wilgus.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

The first meetings established by this denomination were at a very early date, but just the time is not known. But knowing the missionary spirit that prevailed among the early Methodist preachers, and also owing to the fact that Orange Township was one of the first settled in the county—her settlement dating back as early as 1806—it is fair to presume that the pioneer minister sought out this early settlement to give to them the bread of life as early as there was a sufficient number who would associate themselves together to form a class.

The first class that we have any knowledge of being formed was at the house of John Stoker; it consisted of John Stoker and wife, Israel Post and wife, Michael Young and wife, George Berry, and perhaps some others whose names are now forgotten. This society existed for some length of time, but was finally abandoned.

In 1832 another society was formed by Rev. Daniel D. Davidson at the house of John Stoker. The first class consisted of Israel Post, — Braden and wife, John M. Bull and wife, John Stoker and wife, John Underwood, and Thomas Holmes. Meetings were held for a number of years at the house of John Stoker until his removal; they were then held at the house of Wm. Minnear until 1843, when they built a frame church on the land of Israel Post. The first trustees of the church were John M. Bull, Wm. Shinn, Butler Randolph, John Hart, and Israel Post. The society is known as Orange Chapel, and has a membership of about forty. The present pastor is Rev. Young.

Wesley Chapel.

As early as 1833 the Rev. Arza Brown formed a M. E. Society in the southern part of this township. Meetings were held in private houses, mostly within the border of Miami County. The members who constituted the first class were, Henry Rhodehamel and wife, Father Kerns and wife, Jacob Tabler and family, and Amos Gray and family. In 1840 the society built a brick church in the south part of the township, near the Miami County line, and it is known as Wesley Chapel.

There were a number of the members of the church living in Piqua and its immediate vicinity who had no means of conveyance of their own. Therefore a move was made to remove the place of meeting to Piqua. It was objected to at first, but upon due deliberation the country members withdrew their objections, and decided to go to town. At this time Elder Willis Hance was pastor of Salem Church; he was so much of a pioneer woodsman that he could not consent to go to town as pastor, and preach to the lawyers, doctors, and gentry; but put him in the log cabin or leafy grove, and he could wield the sword of the spirit with power.

The Rev. Daniel Bryant became the first pastor, and preached the first sermon to the church in its new location. At this time Elder Bryant lived in Hamilton, Ohio. The distance was so great, and having to travel on horseback, he soon gave up the pastorate, and Elder J. L. Moore was called to fill his place. The church in Piqua now having become numerically strong, and the members of Spring Creek not having lost their preference for country life, some twenty-one of them counselled together as to the propriety of asking letters of dismission from Piqua, in order to join in a church constitution on Spring Creek. On the first day of August, 1840, letters were granted, and on the 22d of the same month they held their first meeting, and resolved to go into a constitution on the 9th of October.

On the 17th of October the church met for the purpose of electing officers and calling a pastor. The first call was made to Elder Eaton, of Troy, to which he agreed, and entered upon his duties, which he filled until July, 1842, when Elder Fuson accepted the pastoral care of the church. Previous to this time the church had occupied a log cabin school-house most of the time as a place of worship. An effort was made to build a suitable house. A kind neighbor leased a lot of ground, upon which a neat church was built.

Elder Fuson continued to labor in the pastoral office of the church until March, 1846, when he declined serving the church any longer as pastor. Robert Duncan, a licentiate of the church, then served as pastor until January, 1847. Evan J. Thomas was then called, and served acceptably until July, 1849. David Scott then accepted a call, and labored until 1851. In May, 1851, Elder E. W. Clark was called, and accepted the charge of the church, but remained but a short time. In September, 1852, James Jackson, a licentiate of the church, was ordained to preach, and served the church until August, 1854. Elder Mason Pearce served from this time to 1855. He was succeeded by Samuel Bower, who continued to serve until 1859. Newton Frazer served from February, 1860, until April, 1862, when J. W. Icenberger was called to the pastorate, and served until July, 1864. In May, 1865, Elder Daniel Bryant accepted the pastoral work. It was during Rev. Bryant's pastorate that the subject of building a new church edifice more centrally located was agitated, a number of the members living south of the church having changed their location a more central place for the church was desired. After mature deliberation a lot was given by John F. Hetzler, just north of the Shelby and Miami Company's line, upon which they built a substantial frame house. It was built in a neat but plain style at a cost of $3500. It was dedicated Sunday, December 15, 1867. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Elder Daniel Shepherdson. Elder Bryant continued as pastor for some time after the completion of the church, when he was succeeded by G. W. Taylor, who labored for some time. He was followed by Rev. Christy, and he by Elder Z. Ross. Afterward the pulpit was filled by Elder W. R. Thomas, who served as pastor until February, 1879. The society has licensed and sent forth to preach four ministers, viz., Robert Duncan, James Jackson, Samuel DeWeese, and Abner Denman, all of whom are now dead, and gone to their reward.

Mrs. Thomas Unger
1804 Circle Road
Ruxton, Md. 21204

Dear Mrs. Unger:

In the current puclication of OHIO The Cross Road of our Nation I was very interested in your query about the hame of VALENTINE.

I am employed as part time employee here at the Allen County Museum and do some genealogical searching on my own time. I have been searching for my own ancestors and helping some of my friends who are interested. This has become quite an interesting and time consuming hobby but is very rewarding at times. I am placing everything I find here in the library of the museum so that others may share it.

I have been very interested in the name of VALENTINE for some time. 1st because I am often asked to speak to small groups about the "History of Valentines" and in relation with this I like to bring in the fact that this is also a family name. I have a very dear friend whose maiden name was Cecile Valentine (now Zurfluh) she is the daughter of Bert Valentine who was born in Fairfield County - came to Allen County, Ohio in about 1900 or 1901 and learned the carpenter trade. He died in 1957.

She knows nothing of the earlier family but is interested so I told her I would try to find out what I can. Since you mention Fairfield Count it is possible she is connected with your Valentine family.

I am listing the Allen County, Ohio marriages
Valentine Crain m. Nancy Musser Mar. 10,1835 by George Sheldon, Min.
Emily m. John Breese Nov. 30,1847 by Wm. Chaffee
George m. Ann Eliza Ocenogle Jan 31,1862 by J.M.Brown, M.G.
Joanna m. Samuel Clippinger Aug. 22, 1839 by John Alexander
John m. Elizabeth Adair Dec. 6,1840 by Eli E.Corson J.P.
Mary H. m.George W.Snyder June 19,1864 by J.W.Kidd, Min.
Mary Jane m.Stephen Whitehurse Nov.8,1857 by Elijah Grubb J
Sarah A. m. Clark B.Miller Feb.21,1864 by Michael Martz E.C
Mary m. David Breese Jan. 1,1849 by Stephen Fant, Meth.M

In Shawnee Cemetery of Allen County there are burials for:
Crain VALENTINE 1797)- 1886 (b. in N.J. d. in Mich.
(son of Wm. & Joanna Crane Valentine)
Mary (Harper) VALENTINE 1800-1835 (b. Berkeley C. Va.)
(dau. of Samuel & Sarah (Cunningham) Harper

BREESE BIBLE RECORDS (in our museum)

John Breese & Emily Valentine was married Nov. 30,1847
Emily Valentine was born April 21, 1820
(children of this family with dates listed - can send them if you wish - P.Leech)
Emily Valentine Breese Musser died Aug. 31, 1905
Crain Valentine was born Oct. 28, 1797 being 71 Oct. last.
Polly Valentine born Feb. 16th, 1800 & died Jan.17,1835 being 34 years 11 months and one day.

COWAN FAMILY BIBLE records
Samuel S. Cowan & Jane Valentine was maried Dec. the 3, 1850
Jane Cowan died Jan. 1st, 1869

On card in our Military file:
AARCH VALENTINE. born O Res. Harrod,O.
Ent. Serv. Jan 2,1864 Pvt Co F. 54 OVI Disc Aug. 15,1865
(Evidently taken from a pension record)

In 1860 Census I found Auglaize Twp, Allen Co, P.O. Westminster

Archibold Valentine	45	m	$1800	$200	born O
M	42	f			all O
G	20	m
C	18	f
A	16	m
Wm	13	m
S	10	m
J	8	m
E	5	m
M	2	f

(Unfortunately the census taker just used initials. I do not know if this family connects with yours or not) I have not found any way it connects with my friends father who came to Lima about 1900.

I do hope that the information I am sending to you is of some value to you - and we would certainly appreciate anything at all you can send us to place in our files here at the museum. We would appreciate anything at all you can send on the Valentine name.

Sincerely

Asst. Curator

Marilyn,

Hope you don't mind me calling you by name.

My husband descends from the Valentine Clan & in doing research some one gave me your name & said you might possibly have some information to share with others in this Barnabas / Bernard Line.

My address / phone / FAX are Listed on chart * #1.

Any help you can give me would be most welcome - If there are any papers or pictures I might copy that would be Terrific.

Sincerely, Awaiting your Reply

Lucy Green.

YOUR FAMILY TREE

WHERE DO YOU BEGIN? Begin with yourself. Always proceed from the present to the past. Record your name, place and·date of birth, marriage and residence. Now search out and record the same information about your parents, then your grandparents, and so on through as many generations as possible.

Start gathering your information by interviewing older living members of your family. Genealogical publications can be helpful. You may find someone else doing research on the same family or in the same area as yours. The library will have some of the following sources: family genealogies, municipal and county histories, census records, directories, biographies and military records.

OTHER PLACES TO LOOK: Vital records--birth certificates, marriage records, death certificates. Probate records--wills, letters of administration, executor and administrator bonds, inventories and appraisals, adoption proceedings, change of names, secret marriages. Land records--deeds, mortgages, leases, recorded wills, power of attorney, maps and plats. Civil records--partition of property, divorces, foreclosures. Miscellaneous records--voter registration, tax and assessment rolls, naturalization records. Federal records--censuses, military records, passenger lists, passport records, immigration records, homestead applications, pension applications. Church records--membership rolls, baptisms, marriages, burial and cemetery records. School and college records--rosters and rolls. Family records--family bible, old family documents, diaries, letters, signed photographs, engraved jewelery, newspaper clippings, wills, lodge records, insurance papers, social security papers, employment records.

Barnabas (Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

I. Introduction

C. At this point in my research I had no connection between Archibald Nelson Valentine and Barnabas(Bernard). The difference in ages indicates an an intervening generation, unknown, and to complicate matters, there are other Valentine families, English and German,in Ohio at this time. I had hoped that by checking census records I could eliminate those who were not related to Archibald. This attempt at elimination did not work out, primarily because only the head of household is identified for each family (until 1850 when the Census Bureau began listing the name of each member of the household).

After identifying a number of Valentines who were obviously not related, I have concluded the only family Archibald can be a part of is that of Barnabas. The question now becomes which of Barnabas' two older sons, John or William is the father of Archibald. The answer is in the 1810 Census for Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County,Pennsylvania. See Section IV, Part F.

D. Barnabas, according to Mrs. Clapp was kidnapped off the coast of northern Ireland (1771), when he was fourteen, and brought to America, most likely to the port of Philadelphia. At some point, Barnabas was indentured to a Reverend Tompson Smith, and later, in 1777, in Lancaster County, two brothers, members of the local militia, purchased Barnabas' indenture time from Smith, so that Barnabas could enlist in the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment, and they, the brothers avoid service in the War.

Barnabas was discharged at Princeton, New Jersey in 1783, and returned to Lancaster County. He promptly married and raised a family near Bryn Mawr. By 1810, he has moved to Fermanagh Township,Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. In 1818, he applied for a Revolutionary War pension, and we learn that he is illiterate, as he signs the documents with the traditional "X". In 1819, he sells his farm in Mifflin County and moves to Ohio. In 1821 his pension is transferred to Ohio.

Bernard (Barnabas) Valentine (1757-1831)

II Ireland

A. Mrs. Clapp has reported that she has been in contact with Valentines in Northern Ireland, but that she has learned nothing very exciting. She did say the Valentines are still in the linen business near Belfast.

B. Lola Avellar in her Valentine Genealogy states, " Barnabas was born of Irish-Protestant parents who lived in Ulster County land on the Irish Coast of the North Channel. His parents were weavers and bleachers of linen. His father owned what was called a Bleacher's Green. It has been said there are still a number of linen factories owned by Valentines today in Ireland. Perhaps Barnabas had brothers whose descendants are still in the linen weaving business.

One day in the year 1771, a ship anchored in the harbor. Most of its crew were sick or had died, so some of those remaining went ashore to try to find replacements. They could get no men, but picked up two boys,one twelve and the other fourteen years of age. The fourteen year old boy was Barnabas Valentine- his brother's name is not known. The boys were coaxed to go aboard to see the ship. They went but soon discovered they were prisoners. The ship sailed for the American colonies.

The twelve year old boy died at sea, but Barnabas escaped from the ship when it anchored at Baltimore,Maryland. He stayed hidden until it left."

Barnabas (Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

III Revolutionary War

A. Introduction

We are not likely to ever learn much of Barnabas' activities in the War.The records of Revolutionary War soldiers are meager at best, but we do have significant documentation of his claim for a pension, and his fight for a military land bounty.

I like to think Barnabas was a combat soldier. In his declaration before Judge Joseph Edmiston of the Mifflin County Court of Common Pleas, 15 August 1818, he stated,"...that during his continuance in the army he was in the Battle of Brandywine, Germantown,Monmouth, and at Paoli -as well as a great number of skirmishes." I suspect there were very few non-combat soldiers in the Revolutionary War.

While the official records tell us very little of Barnabas, the few facts we have enable us to speculate about Barnabas' years in the Revolution. For example, the battles cited above all occurred in the fall of 1777 and were all near Philadelphia.In all liklihood Barnabas was at Valley Forge. It has been reported that there is an exhibit at the Valley Forge National Park, listing the names of those were served there, and that Barnabas Valentine's name is among them.

Barnabas also states that just before the Battle of Monmouth he was assigned to the artillery, and the records show assignment to the Commissary. It may be his days in combat ended with this assigment as he does not identify any engagement in which he participated after Monmouth. Furthermore, in 1818 he stated his occupation was shoemaker. It would seem likely his assignment to the artillery and to the Commissary was as a shoemaker. The army has great difficulty in supplying its troops with shoes.

Barnabas stated he was discharged after the Treaty of Peace(1783) at Princeton,N.J. This seems reasonable as the 2nd Continental Artillery(Lamb's) was assigned to the Highlands Department at that time. According to Wright,The Continental Army,337, the 2nd was " Reorganized 11 June 1783 to consist of two companies. Morris, Enclopedia of American History,110, states "

On 13 June 1783, most of Washington's army departed for their homes from the camps in the Hudson Highlands. " See also The Pennsylvania Line, Regimental Organization and Operations, 1776-1783, John B.B. Trussell, Jr.,Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, 1974. (Received from the Historical Society of Montgomery County, 25 February 1995.)

Chronologically, Barnabas' war may be tabulated :

Brandywine	11 September 1777
Paoli	September 1777
Germantown	4 October 1777
Valley Forge	December 1777 to 19 June 1778
Transferred to Lamb's Artillery
Monmouth	28 June 1778
Army disbands	13 June 1783

III Revolutionary War

A. Introduction (cont'd)

Barnabas's discharge at Princeton is thus, consistent with the history of his unit. It is also consistent with the birthdate (1784) of his first child, Catherine. This suggests he must have established a household in time for the 1790 Census, although we have not found him in that Census.

The affidavit he obtained in 1815 from Robert King suggests that after the War, Barnabas returned to Lancaster. If he later moved to Bryn Mawr, perhaps it was after receiving a Pennsylvania military bounty land grant, although I have yet to find such a grant.

III Revolutionary War

B. Claim for Pay and Prize Money

This was Barnabas' first claim. It was a claim for pay " arrearages and prize money due from the capture of a British vessel. This expedition was commaned by a Major Green, and for the purpose of filing this claim, Barnabas obtained two affidavits in 1815.

In his statement before Judge Joseph Edmiston of the Court of Common Pleas, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, on 15 August 1818, Barnabas (Bernard) stated, "...there is more than two parts of pay which yet remain unpaid- as well as a considerable sum of prize money which was awarded to all of the men in the expedition under Major Green, which captured a British vessel...".

In the cited "declaration" above, reference is made to the "deposition of Robert King, Esq. of Lancaster County, and the certificate of General John Steele, Collector of the Port of Philadelphia, which he had procured in the year ,1815 for the purpose of petitioning Congress for the arrearages of pay and prize money due him-but which were never sent him or paid." These two documents were not in the pension file, but they did turn up in the Bounty Land File.

Eventually, 16 January 1830, Barnabas' Congressman, William W. Irvin, was advised by William Gordon, War Department, Bounty Land Office, that such claims had been barred by a statute of limitations many years earlier, and that relief could only be obtained by an appeal to Congress.

In 1815 Barnabas is 58 years old. He and his family are in Fernamagh Township of Mifflin County. He decides to file a claim for prize money and back pay due him from the War, presumably because he needs money.To support his claim which must be filed with Congress, he must travel to Lancaster County and seek out the King family. He obtained an affidavit from Robert King on 26 March 1815. He also went to Philadelphia and received an affidavit from General John Steele, then Collector of the Port of Philadelphia, on 28 September 1815.

The is something sad about a 58 year old man who 32 years after the War, and after raising a large family, must still petition his governament for monies due him. There is also something brave about an old man who must make two arduous journeys before he can even file a claim. The claim if it was ever filed was never paid. This is made clear three years later when Barnabas files his original application for a pension. In the application, 15 August 1818, he states his claim for prize money and back pay, stating these monies had never been paid.

Barnabas(Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

III Revolutionary War

C. Pension

Barnabas' pension records at the National Archives are a fund of information. The application closely followed the passage of a new law; the original application is dated 15 August 1818, and was executed at Lewistown, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, before Judge Joseph Edmiston. Barnabas is identified as a resident of Fermanagh Township,and under oath, he describes his military service, identifies his commamding officers, states he is due back pay and prize money for an expedition under Major Green that captured a British vessel, that he is in ..." reduced circumstances and stands in need of the assistance of his county for support." This application was accompanied by the deposition of a Robert King of Lancaster County, and a certificate of General John Steel, Collector of the Port of Philadelphia. (These documents were missing from the pension file but eventually found with the Bounty Land Claim).

The foregoing application is also supported by three other documents :

1. David Reynolds deposition regarding the certificate of General Steel.

2. Judge Joseph Edmiston's affidavit and transmittal to the Secretary of War.

3. Certificate of Ephrain Banks, Protonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, identifying Judge Joseph Edmiston.

The final document is a pre-printed cover page, untitled and undated. However the pension number is shown (6797); the state Pennsylvania is shown. The next section reads, "Bernard Valentine of Mifflin Coy in the state of Pennsulvania who was a private in the regiment commanded by Colonel Lamb in the New York line, for a term of six years." (I have underlined the words added manually to the form. Also the reference to the " New York line" originally read Pennsylvania line, which was crossed out and New York inserted.)

The next section reads, " Inscribed on the Roll of Pennsylvania at the rate of 8 dollars per month to commence on the 15 of August 1818." A third section reads," Certificate of Pension issued the 11 of Feby 1819 and delivered to Hon W.P.Maclay, Hs Repr." William P. Maclay is identified in the Biographical Directory of the American Congress, 1774-1961, U.S. Government Printing Office, 1961, as a member of the 15th Congress, 4 March 1817 to 3 March 1819. His residence was Lewistown, Pennsylvania.

The final section shows the computation of the amount due through the 4 March 1819.The computation would indicate the payment was nade 4 September 1818. (Note the pension was apparently paid in advance). Certain addenda were made later when Barnabas moved to Ohio.

Additional facts can be gleaned from a series of documents dated in 1821 and 1822 and concerned with Barnabas' efforts to have his pension transferred to Ohio from Pennsylvania. This effort was initiated by a deposition filed in the Court of Common Pleas, Fairfield County, Ohio. The deposition is accompanied by an affidavit executed by the Clerk of the Court in which an opinion is expressed on the value of his assets. The deposition and affidavit are dated 24 October 1821.

The law (18 March 1818) authorizing pensions to Revolutionary War veterans was only for those veterans in need. The veteran had to plead poverty and also swear he had not disposed of his property in order to qualify for his pension.

On 14 January 1822, Bernard Valentine executed an affidavit before Adam Weaver, Justice of the Peace, Fairfield County, Ohio, stating under oath, that he was the same Bernard Valentine, presently on the pension roll of Pennsylvania. On the same day, the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, Fairfield County, certified that Adam Weaver,J.P. was a duly commissioned Justice of the Peace. The cover page referred to earlier, bears the notation," Notification sent 23 Jan 1822 to Hon. J. Vance,H.R.". (Joseph Vance, a resident of Urbana, Ohio, was a member of the 17th Congress, 4 March 1821 to 3 March 1823. See Biographical Directory of the American Congress.

C. Pension (cont'd)

Other interesting facts come to light in the examination of these pension documents :

1. Bernard is illiterate as he is unable to sign his name. His pension application is signed with an "X", identified as Bernard (possibly Barnard) Valentine, his mark.

2. He apparently did not know his birthdate. In his original application for the pension, filed at Lewistown, Bernard is described as " aged about sixty years". This description was repeated three years later, in his deposition before the Court of Common Pleas in Ohio. It is interesting to note that when the Ohio deposition was taken , the Pennsylvania application was not available. The age of sixty in 1818 would seem to be consistent with the age of the Bernard Valentine who died in Hopewell Township, Perry County, Ohio in 1831 at the age of seventy-three. This death was reported in The Pension Roll of 1835, Volume IV, Mid-Western States.

3. The foregoing comments on age are further supported by the fact that a Bernard Valentine drew a pension from 1818 to 1831 of $ 96 per year.This period of thirteen years again ties to an age of approximately sixty years in 1818, and also to the subject Barnabas Valentine.

4. Bernard did not apply for the transfor of his pension from Pennsylvania to Ohio until the 24 October 1821. This seems rather late inasmuch as Bernard is in the 1820 Census for Fairfield County.The explanation seems to be that the pension was paid in advance. His first payment paid him through 4 March 1819, the second through the 4 October 1819. The next payment would have been due, 4 April 1820. Could it have been forwarded to him? Did the Post Office forward mail in 1820 ? How was the pension paid?

D. Military Bounty Land Claim

1. In 1990, Beatrice Valentine wrote that she had found a book, Private Claims Presented to the House of Representatives of the United States, 1st to 31st Congress, Volume III- A Digested Summary and Alphabetical List of Private Claims which have been presented to the House of Representatives of the U.S. Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore, Md., 1970. This book contained the following entry:

" Bernard Valentine- Bounty Land for Revolutionary War service, 22 nd Congress,Session 2. Brought before the House of Representatives, p.121. Public Lands Committee, # 48. Nature of Report favorable. Number of bill -#693. Referred to the committee of the full house."

2. It wasn't until 1994 that I followed up on this lead- presumeably because until 1993, I refused to believe that Barnabas and Bernard were one and the same. On January 10, 1994 I wrote to my Congressman for assistance in locating the above records. There were letters and phone calls, and late in May I received the documentation.

3. The file contained several letters from the War Department, Bounty Lands Office to Barnabas' Congressman, William W. Irvin. Two of the three letters were dated in 1830, and one in 1832 (after Barnabas' death). A Resolution of the 22nd Congress is dated 3 January 1833. Report No. 48 of the Committee of Public Lands is dated 18 January 1833. A copy of H. R. 693 is dated 18 January 1833.(William W. Irwin, a resident of Lancaster, Ohio, is identified as a member of the 22nd Congress,sitting from 4 March 1831-3 March 1833.

a. The War Department repeatedly denied Barnabas' claim as he could not prove he had enlisted for the duration of the War,rather than for a limited period.It was for this reason he had to seek help from the Congress.

b. Bill 693, directed that "... the Secretary of the Treasury cause to be issued to Bernard Valentine, land scrip for one hundred acres of land in satisfaction of his claim of military bounty land, for services in the war of the revolution, receivable in payment of any of the public lands liable to entry at private sale."

E. Other Military Records.

1. Military Records are separate from Pension Records at the National Archives. The National Archives and Records Administration produce only three military records, two are pay records and the third is a muster roll. In all cases, Bernard is a private in the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment, although the name varies; three records, three names, Barnard, Bernard, and Barney.

2. The Pennsylvania Archives abstracted two documents: one, A List of Soldiers of Capt Samples's Co and Capt John Steel's of the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment,undated, and two, a Muster Roll of Capt Robert Sample's Company, 10th Pennsylvania Regiment,dated April, 1780. The first document identifies, Barnard Valentine, and states he enlisted in May, 1777. The second also identifies Barnard, and shows his duty to be " Command Commissary General". I also have photocopies of pages 380-383, Pennsylvania Archives,Third Series, Volumne XXIII, Harrisburg, 1897, wherein Barnard Valentine is identified as a private in Captain Robert Sample's Company, 10th Pennsylvania Regiment.

3. Index to Revolutionary War Pension Applications, National Genealogical Society, identifies, " Bernard (or Barnard) Valentine, N.Y., S 40616 ". We know the "N.Y." to be in error and due to his detached service with Colonel Lanbs Artillery Regiment. The S 40616 is the claim number for survivor benefits awarded to his son, James Fuhrman Valentine, and is in the Barnabas (Bernard) pension file.

4. Pension Roll of 1835. Genealogical Publishing Co. Under Fairfield County, Ohio, Bernard is listed with information regarding his annual pension of $ 96, the total sum received, $ 1,239.99; it shows him to have served with the N.Y. Continental Line, and other pension information. It also states he died 14 July 1831, at age 73.

III Revolutionary War

E. Other Military Records (cont'd)

5. Revolutionary War Pensioners Living in Ohio Before 1834. Duplicates information above.

F. Other Evidence

1. Bernard's career as outlined in his original application is well supported by official documents. Note that all the officers he mentions are all identified in various publications with the exception of Wade Hampton.

2. In his original application for a pension, Bernard stated he had "...enlisted in the spring of 1777, under Lieutenant John Steel, of a company commanded by Capt Sample, which company was organized in the 10 Reg't, 1st Brigade, Pennsylvania line, that he continued in said company until shortly before the Battle of Monmouth-wheb he was drafted into a company of Artillery, commanded by Capt Lee- attached to Col. Lamb's reg't, that he continued in said Reg't until the year 1783...".

3. The enlistment date is May 10, 1777 per statement from National Archives of final account for soldiers as authorized by Congress, July 4, 1783. Final payment to Bernard Valentine, pvt.,10 Regiment, Pennsylvania , was L 54-6 shillings-5 pence.

4. Lieutenant John Steel has been identified as Captain John Steele who on 13 October 1777 was commanding a company that was an "...element of the Main Army ..." organized "... in the Spring of 1777 at Philadelphia with personnel from central Pennsylvania ". See page 323, The Continental Army, Robert K. Wright,Jr., Center of Military History, U. S. Army, Wash.,D.C. 1989.

a. In 1818, Bernard filed with his pension application, a "certificate" from General John Steele, Collector for the Port of Philadelphia, which he had obtained in 1815 "... for the purpose of petitioning Congress for the arrearages of pay and prize money due him."

Barnabas (Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

III Revolutionary War

F. Other Evidence (cont'd)

5. Captain Sample is identified as Captain Robert Sample on a payroll account covering January, February, and March of 1780, and on a muster roll for September 9, 1778. In both cases the company is in the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment. A muster roll for the 10th Pennsylvania covering June, July, and August of 1780,also identifies Barnard Valentine, Captain Robert Sample, and Colonel Richard Humpton. In the case of the muster roll for the 9 September 1778, Barney is " ...on command at Artillery...". See Pennsylvania

Archives, 2nd Series, Volumne 15,page 500.

6, Captain Lee is Captain James Lee, of Lamb's Continental Artillery Regiment. Lee commanded a company organized in the spring of 1777 at Morristown, New Jersey "... with recruits from Philadelphia City and County Pennsylvania."

7. Colonel Lamb is John Lamb who in 1775, as a Captain organized in New York City, Lamb's Company of Artillery. He eventually commanded the 2nd Continental Artillery Regiment.

8. Colonel Wade Hampton. In his original application (1818), Bernard doe not mention his regimental commander. However, in 1821 and 1822, when he is seeking to have his pension transferred from Pennsylvania to Ohio, he mentions Colonel Wade Hampton who I have not identified. However one of the documents obtained from the National Archives, dated 9 September 1778, indicates the regimental commander is Colonel Richard Humpton. I believe the error is obvious. Humpton was apparently a trusted aide to George Washington. See Richard M. Ketchum , page 250, The Winter Soldiers.

a. By strange coincidence, a Wade Hampton was a Lieutenant General in the Confederate Army, generations later.

Barnabas(Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

III Revolutionary War

F. Other Evidence (cont'd)

9. The foregoing also clears up another problem: the association of Bernard with both New York and Pennsylvania. One document associates Bernard with both states; this is the document that records Bernard's pension number, 6797; it also identifies the pensioner as " Bernard Valentine of Mifflin Coy in the State of Pennsylvania who was a private in the regiment commanded by Colonel Lamb of the New York line, for a term of six years".

a. The above document was a printed form with blanks to be filled in bv hand. I have underlined the handwritten insertions.

b. "New York" replaces" Pennsylvania" , the original handwritten entry, Modifying the word "line".

10. The Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, Volumne 15, shows (on page 708) a Bernard Valentine, private, on the list of Pennsylvania Pensioners, i.e., residing in Pennsylvania in 1820. He is not included in the list for 1825.

11. A Captain Lee commanded the artillery at Fort Mifflin when it was attacked by the British , 10 November 1777 (following the Battle of Germantown). In the heavy bonbardment of the fort, which lasted until November 15, Captain Lee was killed. Bernard enlisted on May 10, 1777 in a company commanded by Captain Robert Sample and was placed on detached service with the artillery (in a company commanded by a Captain James Lee) just before the Battle of Monmouth which occurred on 28 June 1778. Did Bernard have a lapse of memory? Were there two Captains Lee in the artillery ?

IV. Barnabas' Family in Pennsylvania

A. It would seem Barnabas married shortly after the end of the Revolutionary War (1783). This is indicated by the birth dates assigned to his children, and a statement by Mrs. Clapp. Robert King in his affidavit states Barnabas returned to the place of his enlistment. The inference is that this was Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, because it was in Lancaster County that King executed the affidavit.

1. The marriage place could have been Lancaster (City).

2. If Barnabas's son, James Fuhrman Valentine's memory was accurate, Barnabas farmed at (or near) Bryn Mawr, which is in Montgomery County. However, James birthplace was reported as Luzerne County. Some verification would be helpful here; census or land records should be checked.

3. Lola Avellar states in her typewritten Valentine Genealogy, that Barnabas and spouse, "... owned and lived on a farm near Philadelphia, presently the site of Bryn Mawr College for Women.They raised a family of ten children here."

4. Lola also states with regard to the subject farm that it was once known as the Taylor farm; that Eleanor acquired possession after her father's death. (Note this is not consistent with Barnabas' death in Ohio).

Barnabas (Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

IV. The Family in Pennsylvania

B. Children

All information about Barnabas' children comes from Lola, although it would seem she got most of it from Mrs. Clapp. Birth dates are listed :

Catherine	1784
Eleanor/Elnor	1788
Mary	1791
John	1793
* William	1797
Robert	1800
Jane	1802
Nancy	1804
James Fuhrman	26 Mar 1806
Barnabas,Jr.	1811

A critical look at these dates suggest an error, at least with regard to Barnabas,Jr. It is unlikely that a woman's child-bearing years extended over a 27 year period. However, a 1811 birthdate seems to be consistent with Barnabas,Jr.'s age in the 1840, and 1850 Censuses.

C. The 1810 Census

The 1810 Census for Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, is very significant in the biography of Barnabas.It places Barnabas in this county, where 1) he later (1818) file his original claim for a pension, and 2) where he later (1819) sold his farm before moving to Fairfield County, Ohio, where he showed up in the 1820 Census. This is about as good a trail as you could hope for!

The is a very good fit between the ages of Barnabas,his spouse, and the children, and the Census. The Census reports :

a. 2 males under 10 years
b. 1 male 10-15 years
c. 2 males 16-25 "
d. 1 male over 45 "
e. 2 females under 10 years
f. 2 " 16-25 "
g. 1 female over 45 "

Matching names and ages against the above Census we get :

1. Two males under 10
   a. James Fuhrman (4)
   b. Robert (10)

2. One male 10 to 15
   a. William (13)

3. Two males 16 to 25
   a. John (17)
   b. ?

4. One male over 45
   a. Barnabas (53)

5. Two females under 10
   a. Jane (8)
   b. Nancy (6)

6. 2 females 16 to 25
   a. Eleanor (22)
   b. Mary (19)

7. 1 female 26 to 44
   a. Jane (48)

IV The Family in Pennsylvania

C. The 1810 Census (cont'd)

This analysis indicates Catherine was probably married, and had left home. In fact she was married to Samuel Aurand and apparently lived in a contiguous county (Snyder). Also that another of the daughters is married and the extra male, 16-25, is her husband.

Beatrice Valentine found a Census of Manufactures accompanying the 1810 Census for this household. It listed :

40	woolen cloth
65	flax
40	hempen
0	cotton
25	common sheep
0	horses
1	loom
1	____ card

These are the assets of Scots-Irish weavers. Which members of the household were the weavers ? Barnabas' son John, his son in law, or his daughters ?

IV The Family in Pennsylvania

D. Ms Mabel Eater of the Mifflin County Historical Society, found in the History of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys, that a Barney Valentine was one of the supporters of the Walker School, in Walker Township, Mifflin County.

E. On March 15, 1819, Barnabas (referred to in the document as Barnard and Barney) and his wife Jean, deeded twenty-three acres in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County to a purchaser. This indicates Barnabas was still known as Barnard , Barney, and Bernard, names he had used in the army. It also confirms his wife's name as Jean. This was also the spelling of Jane in those days.

Note that this transaction was just after his pension was approved on 11 February 1819, effective 15 August 1818.

IV The Family in Pennsylvania

F. Archibald Nelson Valentine

Archibald Nelson Valentine, as a grandson of Barnabas, born 1815 in Pennsylvania, had to have been born in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County. His father would have been John, as he was the eldest son, twenty-two in 1815, whereas William would have been only eighteen.

We should realize that Archibald likely knew his grandfather, Barnabas Valentine. Archibald was 15 when his grandfather died. He must have heard the old man's stories, and also those of his own father. There were plenty of long winter evenings in both Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Archibald's uncles would have been William and Robert, both of whom were virtually adults when Archibald was born. However two of his uncles were much younger; James Fuhrman was only nine years older, and Barnabas,Jr. was only four years older.

Barnabas (Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

V. The Family in Ohio

A. Introduction

As one might expect, after the move to Ohio, as the younger children reached maturity, they dispersed as new households were set up. This applies to John,William, Robert, Jane, Nancy, James Fuhrman, and Barnabas, Jr. This dispersal can be traced only partially through the Censuses. The females loose their identity completely in the Censuses as until 1850 only the head of household is identified by name. Two brothers may double-up , or two families, in a single household, and there could be but one " head of household" for Census purposes.

We know Barnabas was living with William in 1820. John Valentine is in Perry County. By 1830, Barnabas(Bernard) is in Perry County, as is James Fuhrman. Robert may be in Allen County in 1840,and Barnabas,Jr. is in Richland Township, Fairfield County. In the next Census, 1850, Barnabas,Jr. is in Perry County, and James Fuhrman is in Union County.

Apparently there was a constant search for land and opportunity.

V. The Family in Ohio

A. The 1820 Census

The first Census for Fairfield County, currently available is the one for 1820. Barnabas (Bernard) is in the city of Lancaster,but there is also a Barnabas in Rush Creek Township of the same county.This is puzzling as no other Barnabas or Bernard shows up in Ohio, other than Barnabas, Jr. who in 1820 is only nine years old.

Matching the Lancaster Census against Barnabas' family we get :

1. Two males under 10
   a. Barnabas, Jr. (9)
   b. unknown

2. Two males 16-18
   a. unknown
   b. unknown

3. Two males 19-25
   - a. William (23)
   - b. Robert (20)

4. one male over 45
   - a. Barnabas (63)

5. One female 16-25
   - a. either Jane (18) or Nancy (16)

6. One female over 45
   - a. Jane (58)

Notice the three eldest daughters are missing;probably married in Pennsylvania, and remained there. Note too, James F., age 14, is not in the Census. Also either Jane or Nancy is not in the Census. On the other hand, there are three unknown males included.

Note: This report of Bernard in Lancaster for the 1820 Census has never been confirmed. Bermard is not in the Index for the 1820 Census; Barnabas (in Rush Creek) is.

V. The Family in Ohio

A.. The 1820 Census

1. The 1820 Census in Rush Creek Township

If we now consider the 1820 Census for Rush Creek, and compare it with Barnabas's family, we find :

1. Two males under 10
   - a. Barnabas,Jr. (9)
   - b. unknown

2. Two males 10-15
   - a. James F. (14)
   - b. unknown

3. Two males 19-25
   - a. William (23)
   - b. Robert (20)

4. One male over 45
   - a. Barnabas (63)

5. One female 16-25
   - a. Jane (18) or Nancy (16)

  6. One female over 45
    a. Jane (58)

Notice that this time James F. is accounted for, and there are only two unidentified males.

V. The Family in Ohio

A. The 1820 Census

2. The Puzzle of the 1820 Census

Obuiously Barnabas was not living in two places at once, but he might very well have owned or rented two places. After all, he had just sold a farm for $200, and had received a pension payment of $54. On the other had there could have been a simple error. We know errors were common enough in the early Censuses.

3. John Valentine

There is a John Valentine in Reading Township, Perry County, Ohio in the 1820 Census. He is in the right age range, and has three male children under ten years of age, one of whom could be Archibald Nelson Valentine. Reading Township is contiguous with Hopewell Township of the same county, and it touches Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County.

33 (CONT'D)

The problem here is that the Census also shows three children aged 10-15, in the household. This seems unlikely if the Head of Household is only 27.

V. The Family in Ohio

B. The 1830 Census

In the 1830 Census, Barnabas is in Hopewell Township, Perry County.The household includes only Barnabas and Jane, and someone, most likely a grandson, aged ten to fifteen years.

James Fuhrman Valentine is in the same township. James is twenty-four, his spouse is twenty or under, and there is one son under five.

In this same Census there is a Nancy Valentine in Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County. She is the right age to be Barnabas' daughter, who in 1830 would be twenty-six. There is an older couple in the HH, but no spouse. She may be Nancy (McCrory) Valentine.

V. The Family in Ohio

D. The 1840 Census

There is a Robert Valentine in the 1840 Census -in Lima Township, Allen County, but I don't have the particulars, age and family. He is possibly the son of Barnabas and if so, would be forty years of age.

There is also a Nancy Valentine in the same Census for Rush Creek Township, Fairfield County. She is between twenty and thirty, and thus too young to be Barnabas' daughter-but she could be a grand daughter.

In the 1840 Census, Richland Township, Fairfield County, there is a Barney Valentine, age , twenty to thirty. He could be Barnabas, Junior, born in 1811.

In the same Census we find a William Valentine at Massillon Township, Stark County. This William is too young to be Barnabas's son, but again, he could be a grandson.

It should be noted that James Furhman Valentine is not in this census. Mrs. Maynard L. Clapp writes, "... he had travelled to Wisconsin and settled on Buckeye Ridge with others from Ohio".

Barnabas(Bernard) Valentine (1757-1831)

V. The Family in Ohio

D. The 1850 Census

Archibald Nelson Valentine shows up in Auglaize Township, Allen County, Ohio. 1850 is the first Census to show the names of all household members. Archibald is thirty-five, with a wife and five children, having been married in 1837, at Lancaster, Fairfield County.

Barnabas, Junior is in the same Census for Monday Creek Township, Perry County. He is identified as a shoemaker,born in Pennsylvania. See Beatrice Valentine's letters of 3 August and 19 August, 1989. Barnabas, thirty-seven, and his wife, Jane, twenty-five were living in the home of William Ross, a farmer, born in Ohio,was twenty-three, and his wife (or sister) was eighteen. (In the previous Census, 1840, Barnabas, Junior was in Richland Township, Fairfield County.)

James Fuhrman Valentine finally shows up in the 1850 Census for Jerome Township, Union County, Ohio. He is forty-five and a wagon maker. There are seven children. (See Family Origins printout)

ALLEN COUNTY, INDIANA
EEL RIVER Township

From book "History of Allen County, Indiana

John M. Taylor, a resident of this township, was the successful candidate for Treasurer of Allen County at the last election, and is now serving in that capacity.

During the late war, this township furnished a full quota of soldiers—twice clearing herself from a draft; and at one time, it is said, scarcely a man of military age remained in the township.

MRS. SUSANNAH VALENTINE.

This aged lady, who was one among the very earliest settlers in this county, came here when the country that now is dotted over with churches and schoolhouses, that is traversed in all directions with railroads and turnpikes, and whose surface is covered with splendid farms, was a vast wilderness, inhabited mostly by Indians and wild beasts.

She is a native of the State of Maryland, where she was born on the 4th day of January, 1799. Her maiden name was Susannah Peters.

When she was quite young, her parents removed to what is now Fairfield County, Ohio, and were among the pioneers that first settled in that part of Ohio.

In 1820, she was united in marriage with John Valentine, and they soon after moved on to a tract of wild land that he had purchased, and went to work to make a home for themselves and their children. They remained there until in June, 1833, when they sold their farm and, loading their household goods in a wagon, came to Allen County, to start anew in the struggle for fortune.

He purchased a tract of land in Eel River Township, consisting of 227 acres, and, with stout hearts and willing hands, in a few years had a comfortable home, and were surrounded with the comforts of life.

In 1868, the partner of her youthful days was removed from earth, leaving her to mourn his temporal loss, but in hopes of an eternal re-union hereafter.

Mrs. Valentine is the mother of eleven children; three sons and three daughters are left to comfort her declining years.

She was brought up within the pale of the Lutheran Church; but owing to the fact that there were no facilities for attending the church of that denomination, in 1858, she became affiliated with the Christian or Campbellite Church, of which Church she has since been a consistent member.

Mrs. Valentine is now over eighty years old, but is still hearty and remarkably vigorous for a person of her advanced age.

JACKSON VALENTINE,

son of John and Susannah Valentine, was born October 15, 1824, in Franklin County, Ohio. He was early trained to habits of industry, and he learned his lesson well. His opportunities for acquiring an education when young were limited to the country schools, which at that time had not attained their present standard of excellence, and his education was consequently rudimentary only.

His father was a farmer, owning the farm on which he lived, and which he sold in 1833, and in June of that year took his family and removed to Allen County.

Soon after his arrival, he purchased the tract of land which his son Jackson now owns, consisting of 227 acres of excellent land in Eel River Township, and commenced to clear it of its heavy growth of timber, in order to make a comfortable home. Jackson remained at home, assisting his father in his labors on the farm, until January 6, 1850, when he was united in marriage with Miss Charlotte Greenawalt, of this county.

Their union was blessed with three children, only one of whom (a son) is still living. She departed this life May 18, 1876, deeply mourned by all who knew her.

Soon after their marriage, he purchased a tract of land, consisting of 124 acres, in Lake Township, on which he lived until the latter part of 1859, at which time he purchased the old homestead of his father, and moved on to it, and where he now lives.

It is a splendid farm—160 acres of the land is in a fine state of cultivation, and is very productive. On May 19, 1878, he was married the second time, taking Mrs. Maria Jones, an estimable widow lady, for his partner through the journey of life.

Mr. Valentine has been a member of the Christian, or Campbellite Church, for nearly twenty years. He is a plain, industrious, upright man, and a good citizen.

DAVID H. LIPES

was born in Botetourt County, Va., July 12, 1811. His father was a well-to-do farmer and his children were trained to habits of industry. Advantages for gaining an education were not as favorable when he was young as they are to-day, but the opportunities he had were well improved.

He remained at home till he was twenty-two years of age, when he purchased a farm and moved on to it. He had been united in marriage, on the 25th of October, 1832, with Miss Margaret N. Thrasher, who was also a native of Botetourt County.

Their wedded life has been blessed with seven children, five of whom (four sons and one daughter) are still living.

They lived and prospered on their farm until the summer of 1850, when they sold their possessions in Virginia, and loaded their household goods and little family into wagons and started for Indiana, arriving in Allen County on the 23d

Looking forward to your attendance and meeting you.

Dear Carl :

The enclosed information on Barnabas may be of help in sorting out the Valentines in Ohio and Indiana. I, too have been trying to separate the families and will try to summarize my data and get it to you.

Have you corresponded with Paul Valentine of Rochester,N.Y.? He has done a lot along this line, working both Ohio and Indiana. Indeed almost all the information I have of George Washington Valentine,who settled near Ossian, Indiana, and was the eldest of Archibald Nelson Valentine's sons is from Paul.

I have subscribed to the Valentine Newsletter from its inception, so had the information you sent me. Many thanks, anyway.Did you know Beatrice plans to discontinue the newsletter next year ?

Regards,

Thad

Dear Mrs Lucy Green,

Enclosed are copies of the genealogy material that I have received from Donald B Valentine of Newbury, Vermont. This material follows the same genealogy line as your husband Lester. That is, at least, from Obadiah to William. It will be interesting to see how this information ties in with your line of descendants.

Donald is requesting assistance in locating the burial sites of Richard Valentine (1); and Ephraim Valentine son of Richard (1); and William Valentine son of Obadiah Valentine. You had mentioned in our tele conversation that there was a possibility you might have something on William in your records.

Sincerely,
Carl Valentine

Dear Lucy,

It was good to hear from you and can appreciate your busy schedules. I must say that I feel relieved in the manner that you have accepted the possibility of the "Barnabas" connection. Your other research has been helpful to me in supplying the info on past generations.

Enclosed is copy of additional information on the background of "Barnabas and family". I believe you will find it very interesting. The party that sent it to me is a descendant and has put together extensive info on this line of Valentines.

Also enclosed is a family group sheet of Oliver and Philena McCroskey. There are three children shown, however; there may be at least two more children who died in infancy. Included are two charts completed with the info currently known to me. I will keep you posted on items that may come about.

Yes, I believe you are and will be getting more and more info on this genealogy line. By the way, you had mentioned earlier that you were using your computer. Do you have a specific genealogy program and if so, what system is it?

Sincerely,

Carl Valentine

Dear Lucy,

Enclosed is a package on a Valentine named Bernard/Barnabas. It seems likely that he has been identified under either one or the other of the names. The name that I am going to use to describe his lineage is "Bernard B. Valentine Sr."

One of the parts of the package are taken from a quarterly newspaper which is known as "Valentine Newsletter" published by Beatrice Valentine of Aptos CA. This part contains publications re: Bernard B. Valentine Sr. of five different newsletters. For convenience I have stapled each of the publications. Each of the publications seem to update a previous one. The data is very interesting with reference to the many sources. There is also the names of different parties who have contributed to the data and are themselves descendants of this Valentine line.

The other part of the package is an outline tree put together with the info. taken from the Newsletters.

Please review and please inform me of your understanding of the two different lines of Valentines.

Sincerely,

Carl Valentine

1910 census

FOREWORD

This book consists of an index of the 1910 census of Shelby County, Ohio. It can be used to locate entries in the microfilm record. This record is available at all National Archive branches and many libraries and historical societies. The index includes almost ten thousand names. The names in this index have been extracted from the National Archives census microfilm T624-1230 for the 1910 Federal Census.

Although the primary listing is that of the head of each household, names such as those of his or her elderly parent or adult sibling and many adult off-spring are also included. Anyone in the household whose surname differs from that of the head of the household is included in the list.

In most cases, a nun's surname does not appear in the census. Those entries appear in the listing as if her surname were "Sister".

Following the given name of each individual listed in the index is the code for the township division and the page number on which it will be found on the microfilm. The township abbreviations are as follows:

Cli	Clinton	McL	McLean
Cyn	Cynthian	Ora	Orange
Din	Dinsmore	Per	Perry
Fra	Franklin	Sal	Salem
Gre	Green	Tur	Turtle Creek
Jac	Jackson	Van	Van Buren
Lor	Loramie	Was	Washington

The page numbers listed in the index are those which appear in bold type in the upper right corner of every other sheet on the microfilm. To clarify this in the index, the letter "A" signifies the page on which the number appears and "B" indicates the page following, on which no number appears. These letters do not appear on the microfilm.

The page numbers on the left side of the microfilmed page are those used by the enumerator and are of no significance with respect to this index.

Every effort has been made to record each name exactly as it was spelled by the enumerator, even when it appears to have been in error. Hence, extra care should be taken in the search when a name does not appear where expected. Difficulty in reading some handwriting will account for other errors and, occasionally, faded ink necessitated guess work. Corrections will be welcomed and should be sent to:

T-SgtL. W. Valentine Seriously Wounded In Luzon Fighting

Technical Sergeant Lester W. Valentine, 24, was seriously wounded in action on Luzon on February 10 is the message coming Friday afternoon to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mace E. Valentine, of 722 Broadway avenue.

The family had had a letter from him, dated on the preceding date, February 9, in which he said he was "O. K" and was "busy." As a member of the famed 37th division, he has seen action in many of the major battles in the south Pacific area but he never mentioned any of them in writing to his parents. When there would be long periods between his letters he would say he was sorry but he couldn't write because he had been busy.

The telegram from the war department, signed by J. A. Ulio, the adjutant general, said: "Regret to inform you that your son was seriously wounded in action on Luzon February 10. Until new address is received address mail (the APO and remainder of address was given here and friends may have the address by telephoning his parents). You will be advised as reports of condition are received."

T/Sgt. Valentine has been overseas three years in May, going first to the Fiji islands and working up from there to Luzon where he was wounded. He left with the national guard when it was federalized, and in which he had been enrolled since in 1939. He trained at Camp Shelby, Miss. and in Indiantown Gap, Pa.

Lester Valentine Military Services To Be Saturday

L. W. Valentine

Full military rites will be accorded Technical Sergeant Lester W. Valentine, 24, the fifth local member of the famous 37th division to make the supreme sacrifice in World war II, on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Church of Christ. Rev. Edwin Allender and Rev. J. A. Long will be in charge of the services and burial will be made in Cedar Point cemetery at Pasco.

Valentine is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Valentine, 722 Broadway, and give his life for his country February 10, 1945, in the battle of Manila in the Philippine islands.

Friends may call at the residence Friday afternoon and until the hours of service on Saturday. The body arrived in Sidney today.

He left with company I, national guard unit, when it was federalized into military training in October, 1940. He trained at Camp Shelby, Miss., and Indiantown Gap, Penn., before going overseas in May, 1942. He had been a member of the national guard a year before he was called up for service.

He was born April 3, 1921 the son of Mace and Elizabeth Valentine. He was a member of the Church of Christ, the Junior Q. U. A. M., graduated from Sidney high school and assisted his father in the cement block business.

Surviving brothers and sisters are Mrs. Oren (Ruth) Douglas, St. Petersburg, Florida; Mrs. Floyd (Wilma) Umstead, Forest Valentine and Carl Valentine, Sidney. One brother, Francis, was killed in 1936.

Sad News Of Death Received

Fifth Local Soldier In 37th Division To Be Killed.

The fifth local member of the famous 37th division to make the supreme sacrifice in World war II during fighting in the south Pacific is Technical Sergeant Lester Warren Valentine, 24, who died of wounds received in action February 10 on Luzon in the Philippines. A war department telegram received today by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mace E. Valentine, 722 Broadway avenue, reads: "The secretary of war asks that I assure you of his deep sympathy in the loss of your son, T/Sgt. Lester W. Valentine. Report received states he died on February 10 on Luzon as result of wounds received in action. Confirming letter follows." It was signed by J. A. Ulio, adjutant general.

T/Sgt. Valentine

Five other Shelby county men attached to the 37th division have been killed in action to date—three men died at Munda airfield on New Georgia during that campaign in July, 1943—Cpl. LeRoy L. Elliott, Capt. Gardner Wing and Lt. Melvin Johnston.

S/Sgt. Clarence O. Deal, who also left with the local national guard unit which helped make up the 37th division, was killed in action on Leyte November 27 of last year.

Several other local members of the 37th have been reported wounded in action during February in the Philippine engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine received a war department telegram on March 9 stating that Sgt. Valentine had been "seriously wounded." Since that time they have had no further word until the wire this morning which disclosed that he had died on the same day as a result of the wounds.

Sgt. Valentine left with Co. I, national guard unit, when it was federalized into military training in October, 1940. He trained at Camp Shelby, Miss., and Indiantown Gap, Pa., before going overseas in May, 1942. The 37th division had gained undying fame for its heroic action in the battle for the Solomons. Sgt. Valentine had been a member of the national guard a year before it was called up for service.

He graduated from Sidney high school, and before he left for the army was an employee of the Stolle corporation and assisted his father in his cement block business. He was active in football and basketball in high school.

The 24-year-old sergeant was a native of Sidney, born April 3, 1921, the son of Mace E. and Elizabeth Robbins Valentine.

His parents mourn his death with the following brothers and sisters: Forest Valentine, Sidney; Carl Valentine, Sidney; Mrs. Floyd Umstead (Wilma), Sidney; Mrs. Oren Douglas (Ruth), St. Petersburg, Fla. A brother, Francis, was killed in California nine years ago.

Sgt. Valentine was a member of the Church of Christ and is the first reported death on that church honor roll. He was also a Jr. O. U. A. M. member.

His death brings to 42 the total number of local men killed in action during World war II, and to 83 the total casualty figure which includes missing, prisoners, etc.

Co I - 148th Wilbert Dwyer marked these names. Some [illegible]
Inf. Just friends of his in other Companies.

Co I 148th Inf
Has a line in front of their names.

The following pages contain the names of the men of the 37th Div. killed in the South Pacific

The Honor Roll

This is but a partial list, but it is as complete as it is possible to make it from the records available. Some forty thousand men were members of this Division at one time or another during the war and these lists do not include those who were separated from the Division at the time of their death, and whose death was not reported to the Division.

Many members of this Division were transferred to other units and their death is recorded with those units. Also there may be many omissions among those who were wounded with the Division and subsequently died of wounds. When a casualty was hospitalized, his records were transferred with him to the hospital, and he was often sent hundreds of miles to the rear and often to the States. It is probable that many died after evacuation; of these the Division received no record.

This list does not include the names of those who died in the States before the Division went overseas nor of those who died in the States after the Division returned. It is a list of those who died while the Division was on overseas duty.

Units that were assigned to the Division will find the names of their dead in this list for the period while they served with the Division but not after they were detached.

Corrections or omissions should be referred to the 37th Division Veterans Association, Columbus, Ohio, which is compiling a complete list of all former members of the Division.

The number of those included in this list according to the theater of operations is as follows:

In Continental United States	2
Fiji and Guadalcanal	42
New Georgia Campaign	237
Bougainville Campaign	270
Luzon Campaign	998
147th Infantry	54

DEAR Mrs Green

I'm sending what I have on the 37th DIV + Les Valentine.

If he isn't "in" your family right now, maybe you will find a connection later on.

If you find some one in your Valentine research who is directly related please free to share this info with that person.

I'm sending what I have on Bloom Center, O.

The librarian at the De Graff Library will take the 1917 tapes to Bellef. library because their readers are much better + they have print-outs.

The librarian said they have very few 1937 records. Some years back they had them stored in a ~~bldg~~ BLDG + it was destroyed by a wind storm.

I will see what I can find.

Please excuse my paper + handwriting. (my hands are crippled with arthritis + besides I'm writing in a hurry + that doesn't help any. I'll mail this today if I get my car back.

PuBLISHED
Ca 1942

An American who fought for three years as a guerrilla in the Philippines tells of the yardstick for measuring how long a compatriot has been in the island bush warfare.

Captain Truman Hemingway, jr., of Chelburne, Vt., in an account of his experiences released by the Army, said the measure of an American's stay in the jungle is this:

"The first six months, if ants get in the food the American throws the food away. The second six months he picks out the ants but eats the food. The third six months he eats the food, ants and all. The fourth six months, if any ants try to escape—he recaptures them and puts them back in the food wher they belong."

I saw this in the Bellefontaine
Examiner Ca 1942 & I cut it out
& put in my S. Pacific scrapbook

	SECTION
AWARDS OF SILVER STAR (POSTHUMOUS) - -	I
AWARDS OF SILVER STAR - - - - - - - - -	II
AWARDS OF BRONZE STAR - - - - - - - -	III

SECTION I

By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 9 July, 1918, (Bulletin 43, War Department, 1918) a Silver Star is awarded posthumously by the Commanding General, 37th Infantry Division, to the following named enlisted men:

Bronze Star

BRONZE STAR

Private First Class Wilbert S. Swiger, (35002047), Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy at Luzon, Philippine Islands, on 15 February, 1945. Acting as Communication Sergeant of his unit, Private Swiger volunteered to repair a vital telephone line to Battalion Headquarters. Despite the danger of many mines in the area and difficulties imposed by darkness, he performed his duty in a minimum of time. Before completing his task, he discovered a Japanese soldier and as the enemy attempted to escape, shot and killed him. His brave act insured necessary communication for his unit. Home address: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Swiger, (Parents), RFD 1, Anna, Ohio.

Wm Valentine will his wife Joanna Crane

Oct. 15 - 1839

John D. Cory executor Levi Val.

William Voluntine's Will

The State of Ohio Champaign County ss. Be it remembered that at the October Term of the Court of Common pleas of the County afsd. To wit Oct. 15th 1839. a writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of William Voluntine decd was presented to the Court for probate, and was proven to be the true last will and testament of the said William Voluntine decd by the Oaths reduced to writing & on file, of Nathan Sheriff and Peter Hatterman two of the subscribing Witnesses thereto. Whereupon John D. Cory one of the executors therein named, in Court declined to accept said trust, and thereupon Levi Voluntine the other Executor named in said Will, is appointed sole executor of said will on his entering into bond in the sum of two Hundred Dollars with John D. Cory and Peter Hatterman his sureties. Executor sworn, and Jacob Conrad, Josiah Dier and Samuel Dorrerock appointed appraisers of the goods and chattels belonging to the estate of said decd. — The Oaths of said witnesses reduced to writing are as follows To wit. "The State of Ohio Champaign County ss. Personally came into open Court Nathan Sheriff and Peter Hatterman and after being duly sworn depose and say that the writing now presented to the Court purporting to be the last will and testament of William Voluntine deceased, was signed by him in their presence, and acknowledged to be his true last will and testament — that they attested said will in the presence of the testator by signing their names as witnesses, and that they verily believe the testator at the time of executing said will, was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and under no restraint ——. Nathan Sheriff - Peter his X mark Hatterman

Sworn to and subscribed in open Court the 15th day of Oct. A.D. 1839. Jno G. Pearson Clk.

Will.. In the Name of God: Amen. I William Volentine of Champaign County and State of Ohio, being at this time of sound mind & memory but considering the uncertainty of this mortal life I do make this my last will and testament. First. I recommend my soul to God who gave it and my body to be decently interred. Second. My funeral expenses and all my lawful debts to be paid. 3rd. I give and bequeath unto my dear beloved wife Joanna Volentine one bed and bedding, also I give my wife the equal one half of all my real estate, also the

Dear Lucy,

Received your package and yes, there is some new "news". Thanks for the data.

Although I have not digested all of it yet, there is an area that is open for a good deal of discussion. (How does one say something to another when their is a different opinion?). I may be wrong, but I have heard of similar situations, where "on the face of it" there seems to be two different lines of Valentines entwined.

Enclosed is a package which reflects the information, that I have, on the lineage of Wm.Valentine and Joanna Crane. Included is a copy of the "Will" of William Valentine and in which he has named all of his existing children. These children were the heirs after the passing of Joanna. The list does not contain a name of a William, Jr.

However, there is data on the family of Wm. Valentine & Hannah Keith. As soon as I get it assembled I will send it to you. Again, thanks for your new "news" package.

Sincerely,

Carl Valentine

Dear Carl,

It was awfully nice to speak with you by telephone earlier this afternoon. As promised, enclosed is a copy of the geneology for my line of Valentines. It would be very interesting to see a similar compilation of your line.

While I don't have any obsession with family gravestones, I do like to see that they are kept clean. Guess it is something I was raised with. Memorial Day, or some Sunday close to it, has always brought a trip to various family cemeteries since I was a small child. Thus the tradition is being continued and has also been expanded. Having found the graves of all Valentine ancestors except William, Ephraim and Richard (1) I'm interested in locating those as well, in addition to learning as much as can be found about each generation. For my branch of the family it really has been quite an odessy, though I've never been able to learn why my grandfather returned east when everyone else was still going west! Then, too, I wonder if he realized that he had returned to the very place where the ancestor of all of us, Richard (1), is reputed to have first landed in North America. Somehow I have always felt he must have known and been drawn to the place for some reason. Yet by changing his name when he moved he thwarted my efforts to tie him correctly with his parents for years until the will of his older brother Charles Franklin made it obvious that he had changed his name. The reason for that is also a mystery which a search of court and criminal records in both Mercer and Rock Island Counties in Illinois for two to three years before he came east has not revealed a single clue!

Hope you can shed some light on William and that you can advise me of when the family reunion next year is early enough so that time for it can be arragned.

Sincerely yours,

Donald B Valentine (Don)

8-9. Alice Sarah - Born 28 Sept. 1873, died in 1941. Married
(1st) George Scofield and living in St. Ansgar, Iowa in 1910.
(2nd) Paul Citurs and living at 1007 North Kenwood Ave. (now 4th Ave.) in Austin, Minn. from 1916 until at least 1926. Paul worked for the C.M.St.P.&P. and died in 1952. No known children from either marriage.

8-10. Richard Louis - Born 20 April 1876, died 1 Nov. 1954. Married Lucy Marion Carberry on 4 March 1896. She was born 1 March 1874 and died 30 Dec. 1952. Richard Louis always went by his middle name and was usually just called "Lou". He appears to have lived with his older sister Ella and her husband in the early 1890's as a hired hand and met Lucy in that period. He always worked as a farm hand for others. He and Lucy had three children; Doris, who was born 10 Oct. 1898, died in 1973, married Reed F. Morse and had at least one son; Florence, who was born 8 May 1900, married Leon Thorson on 20 June 1928 and has sons Robert and Wayne; and Richard (Jr.?) who married and had daughters Jean and Janis and lives in Homestead, FL. in Dec. 1987. This information largely from Florence in Lake Worth, FL on 11 Dec. 1987.

8-11. William A. - Born ? June 1881. Married Ethel Grace Ray on 25 June 1902 and living in Des Moines, Iowa form 1910 to 1926. Niece Florence Valentine Thorsen advises (12-87) they had no children who reached adulthood.

Eighth Generation

BENJAMIN G. VALENTINE - Born 12 Dec. 1870 in Rock Island, Ill. and died 17 March 1914 in Watertown, Mass. Moved to Newton, Mass. about 1895 where he was always known as "William Benjamin Valentine". He enlisted in the Fifth Mass. Infantry on 22 June, 1898 at So. Framingham and served in the Spanish - American War in Penn. and So. Car. before being mustered out of Federal service at Greenville, So. Car. on 31 March 1899. He was appointed a corporal in Co. C, 2nd Infantry Brigade on 1 June 1899 and a sergeant on 6 Sept. 1900. He worked for the Stanley Dry Plate Co. as an engineer until the Stanley brothers sold the dry plate business to Eastman Kodak in 1907, after which he worked for them in their Stanley Steam Carriage Co. for some years. He married Zeda Irene Bill, dau. of Frederick P. & Love Bill, on 30 June 1909. She was born 24 Feb. 1884 at Berwick, Nova Scotia and came to Watertown in the late 1800's. The two lived in Watertown after being married, where he was working for the Hood Rubber Co. as a rubber refiner until his death. Zeda Valentine then worked in the Audit Dept. of the Boston & Maine R.R. until her death on 20 Aug. 1947. One child:

9-1. Donald Benjamin - Born 28 June 1913.

Ninth Generation

DONALD BENJAMIN VALENTINE - Born 28 June 1913 at Watertown, Mass., died 27 Dec. 1987 at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Hanover, N.H. Graduated Wentworth Institute 1933. Berry, Phillips, Valentine

The first white settlement in southern Shelby County, Ohio, (Orange Township) had been made by James Cannon but other early settlers to the area included John Phillips/William Berry who arrived in the spring and Daniel Valentine in the fall of 1809.

William Berry (nationality unknown) built the county's first frame house and also one of the first successful flouring mills. Pioneers would travel 40 to 50 miles to reach the mill to grind their grain. He and Edward Jackson both constructed block houses to serve as protection from the Indians. Berry later served as one of the community's first commissioners.

Born in New Jersey, Daniel Valentine's ancestors were English immigrants. He came to the area with his wife, Rachel Winans, and their four children. In addition to running a farm, Daniel was a shoemaker. It wasn't long before his shoemaking skills were in great demand throughout the county. Daniel apprenticed one of his sons, Richard, at the age of 16 to a blacksmith named Alexander Moreland. In 1828, Richard opened the first blacksmith shop within the township at the old site of Berry's mill.

12 GENERATION PEDIGREE CHART

It is recommended that a chart be filled out initially as a work copy. Then after checking for accuracy a final copy can be typed or done in ball point. If desired the final copy can be done with the front side being on one chart and the back side on another chart. Then both charts can be laid side by side to show all information at once. This chart has been punched so that it can be folded and put either in a three-ring binder or in the two different 8½" × 14" binders.

WILLIAM ROCKAFIELD, an old soldier, died at Tremont City, on Friday and was buried from the res of MR CHRIST NEFF, on Monday. Rev From conducted the funeral service.

Born to MRS MECH. BERRY, a girl on last Saturday.

MR and MRS GUS WEIGLE, MRS DR SENSEMAN attended the funeral of their dear friend, MRS JAMES FLEMING, at Springfield last Sunday.

Apr 6

Born Monday, Apr 2, 1894, to MR and MRS MUNDAY ROBINSON, a boy.

In computer

On account of the death and funeral of his mother, our foreman MR T A SNYDER was off duty, which is the cause of this issue being three days late. MARY H, daughter of WILLIAM and HANNAH VALENTINE, was born in Allen Co, OH, on Nov 14, 1842, and died in St Paris, Apr 2, 1894, aged 51yrs, 4mo and 18 days. She was united in marriage to G W SNYDER at Westminster, Allen Co, June 19, 1864. She was the mother of five children, two sons and three daughters, all of them living.

Md Sunday, Apr 1, 1894, at the bride's home, MR J L BERRY, of St Paris, to MISS MATTIE LONG, of Johnson Twp, by Rev Isaac Pence.

Apr 13

ASA BATES, a rich farmer of near Irwin Station, suicided by shooting himself with a revolver last Sunday. He was considered the richest farmer in Union Co. No cause is known for the act.

LOLA LARGENT, youngest daughter of JOHN LARGENT died at her home, three miles east of St Paris, on Tuesday, Apr 10, 1894. Her death is the 3rd in this family within six month. MRS LARGENT, a granddaughter and MRS EDITH HAMLIN. J A ECKROTE and daughter of Adams Co, IN, attended the funeral yesterday.

HORACE ROBBINS, of Fletcher, aged 25 years, a son of MRS CALLIE ROBBINS and grandson of MAYOR MICHAEL DUNCAN, of that place was killed by a freight train on the Pan Handle, three miles south of Fletcher. He and his father JOHN ROBBINS were well known in the Troy and Piqua area.

WILBER C, son of J W and ARTIL C SHAFFER, was born Nov 4, 1892 and died Apr 5, 1894, aged 1yr, 9mo and 1 day.

Md, J L EDMISTON and MISS REBECCA RUST, on Tuesday.

Apr 20

JOHN WELLER and wife of Yellow Springs, attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, JOSEPH WARD, Sunday. Rev Randle conducted the funeral service at the Reformed Church.

Note 18 William H. Valentine-Land Transactions

1. Thanks to Beatrice Valentine, Thelma Crader, and Jeanne Porreca we now have deeds covering nine land transactions in which William H. Valentine was a party. That William was a party is established by the middle initial, or his wife's name, Hannah, or by his residence, Perry County. This was of importance as it was necessary to distinguish William H. from William and Joanna (Crane) Valentine of New Jersey who settled in Champaign County, Ohio in 1805,[1]and are not related.

2. I have purchases totaling 122 acres, but sales of 242 acres. Obviously I have not found all purchases, but some of the land may have been inherited by Hannah from her father, William Keith. We know William H. ,in 1843, was a witness to the Will of his father-in-law, William Keith, who died in 1844. We know William Keith owned land in Sections 11 and 17 of Auglaize Township, Allen County.[2]

a. An Allen County map[3] received from Beatrice Valentine shows purchases by William Valentine (1835,1836), William Keith (1835), and Eli Clum(1835). She has placed all these purchases in Auglaize Township; Section 11, for Eli Clum and William Keith, Section 17 for William Keith, and in Sections 8 and 9 for William Valentine.

b.These transactions seem to indicate William H. and HANNAH were in Perry County until 1837. In the 1840 Census they are in Auglaize Township, Allen County. Then in Allen County until 1841 when they sold off 200 acres. I would guess 1841 was the year of the move to Champaign County. I have not yet located their farm, section, township and range, in Champaign County.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Turkey Found.

James Smith and John Poland, Anna junk dealers, were arrested and placed in jail at Bellefontaine Wednesday for stealing a turkey from a grocery store. The turkey was found in their wagon. The Mayor fined Poland $10 and costs and Smith $1 and costs Thursday.

Lumber Damaged.

The dry house connected with the Bimel Carriage Company's factory caught fire early Sunday morning. The fire department could not get at it until the roof was torn off and part of the brick walls taken down. It took several hours to put it out. Two car loads of lumber were in the dry house. The loss is estimated at $800, with no insurance.

Officers Elected.

Sidney Council, Royal and Select Masters, elected the following officers Thursday evening of last week: W. A. Graham, T. I. M.; E. W. Stowell, D. I. M.; W. J. Emmons, P. C. W.; C. F. Hickok, Treasurer; Emory C. Mumford, Recorder; Samuel F. Apple, C. of G.; A. W. Reddish, C. of C.; Hartman Miller, Stewart; John A. Mumford, Sentinel.

El Shereef Temple, No. 32, D. O. K. K., Thursday evening, elected the following officers for the year: R. H. Trego, Vnerable Sheik; A. J. Hess, Royal Vizier; J. D. Geyer, Grand Emir; E. C. Amos, Mahedi; E. L. Hoskins, Mokanna; G. C. Cyphers, Menial; T. W. Johnston, Sahib; J. L. Adler, Secretary; E. E. Kah, Treasurer; W. H. C. Goode, L. M. Studevant and W. P. Harmony, Trustees.

Mammoth Store.

I. H. Thediek will soon tear down the wall between his dry goods store and the hardware room now occupied by H. G. Woodward, who will remove to his new block in Ohio avenue. This mammoth department store will practically be four stories high, and between 40 and 50 feet wide by 165 feet long. The enterprise is truly metropolitan, and few stores in this part of the country equal the contemplated improvement with all the modern appointments. It reflects great credit on the business push and executive ability of the proprietor, whose mercantile stock in variety, quality and quantity will be in keeping with his high notions of a first class emporium, with ample capacity to indulge them to their fullest extent.

course of six lectures—is certainly within the means of all, and the instruction and information to be derived will be worth many times the cost. The lectures will be given two weeks apart—Monday evenings—in the Methodist church edifice.

Local Miscellany.

P. W. Speker has moved from Botkins to Delphos.

The office of the Quincy Gazette was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning.

A. W. Barriger, the Wapakoneta "Magnetic Healer," died at Findlay Saturday.

Dr. H. E. Beebe has been re-elected Vice President of the State Board of Medical Examiners.

Charles O'Donnell, an old shoemaker, of Trov, committed suicide Wednesday by shooting with a revolver.

The women of Cole chapel will give an ice cream and oyster supper at the McClure school house Friday evening, the 12th.

Representative Gordon has introduced a bill to provide a pension of $20 a month for John Laughlin, of Turtle Creek township.

Charles A. Sager, of Jackson Center, was granted a State certificate at a recent examination of school teachers in Columbus.

R. P. Higgins, formerly of Orange township, has moved with his son, J. F. Higgins, from Van Wert to Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

The Rev. T. L. Hughes, pastor of the Piqua Presbyterian congregation, has received a call from the Presbyterian congregation at Danville, Kentucky.

M. A. LeFevre, of Pemberton, succeeded L. G. Simes, of Greene township, as Infirmary Director Monday. The Board organized by choosing S. M. Martin, President, and S. M. Wagoner, Secretary.

A cordial invitation is extended to all within driving distance of Hardin to attend the special services now being held in the Presbyterian church edifice. These services are to continue until Junuary 12.

While Dr. A. P. Kessler, of Ludlow Falls, Miami county, was hunting the 21st ultimo, his gun was accidentally discharged, the load entering the right leg below the knee, and making amputation necessary.

Men's League.

The Presbyterian Men's League had a charming meeting Tuesday evening in the women's parlor of the reconstructed church edifice. If there ever was a parlor in a house of religious worship it is the delightful one in our gem in Sidney. At the east end is a grate, set in tiling, encased in a mantel of costly wood, and surmounted with a large mirror. The up to date grate blazed all over with burning natural gas, which cheered and sufficiently warmed the room to the remotest corner, and gave perfect ventilation. A pretty carpet and commodious chairs enhanced the home like comfort, and a new upright piano stood in one end of the room and privileges could have been secured to them only by and through the Trustees of the Monumental fund. Such Board constituted the only authority through which the uses to which the rooms in the building were to be put could be designated. The use then designated could not now be changed except by the consent of all who contributed to the fund.

The anthority conferred upon the Board of Trustees is a continuing authority, and the discretion granted is also a continuing discretion, but when once expressed, consonant with and in the execution of the agreement of the parties producing the fund, it can not, therefore, be changed without the consent of all.

We, therefore, upon the issues joined, find for the defendants, and an entry may be drawn granting them the relief prayed for in their cross petition, dismissing plaintiff's petition, taxing the costs to plaintiff and saving an exception for plaintiff.

Shocking Accident.

John Valentine, living on a farm a short distance south of Maplewood, in Salem township, went on a visit to Millerstown, Champaign county, last week, leaving his wife and two children, one of them five years and the other eight months old, at home. He had procured Vernon W. Reed, 18 years old, son of Mrs. Charles French by a former marriage, to stay with the family and take care of the stock during his absence. Saturday evening Mrs. Valentine, with her children and her sister, the 16 year old daughter of Wesley Stewart, and the 12 year old daughter of George Dossen, went to bed in the second story of the double log house, weather boarded, and Reed below. Early the next morning Mrs. Valentine was awakened by a rumbling noise, but soon fell asleep again, only to be aroused by an outcry of fire by the sister. The flames were already making their way up the stairway, and Mrs. Valentine, knocking out a small window, jumped to the ground below, a distance of nine feet, and bid the two girls to hand her the children and follow, which was hastily done. Once out, with nothing on but their night clothes, they walked in their bare feet to the home of William Young, a quarter of a mile away. The alarm of fire was spread, but nothing could be done to save the house or any of its contents. Reed was not to be found, and fears were felt that he had failed to make his escape from the burning building, which proved only too true, his charred body being found on the inside of the door, with both legs and the right arm completely burned off, and beyond all recognition. Nothing is definitely known as to the cause of the horrible affair. It is surmised, however, that Reed, mistaking gasoline for coal oil, attempted to start a fire, and an explosion followed, with the attendant sad result. Mr. Valentine carried no insurance.

Mr. Denise looked at the two tall stalks, each measuring 12 foot 2 inches, waving at each side of the News Office doors, and came in with the remark, "that corn's sure fine specimens, but I have 95 whole acres of corn just that good and better"—better, he said, because the ears were larger and more filled out although it's still early in the season.

Mrs. Denise, who had waited for Mr. Denise in their car parked at the curb, gave smiling substantiation to everything her husband had said in boasting of "what Green township grows in the way of corn."

Car Careens And Hits Abutment Of Bridge In Bristol, Pennsylvania.

Bristol, Pa., July 28 — Two youths and a young woman companion were killed today when their borrowed automobile careened into a bridge abutment on Bristol pike.

The dead were:

Raymond McMahon, 19, of Philadelphia; Frank J. Choolfian, 20, of Dorchester, Mass., and an unidentified young woman, about 20.

Police expressed the theory that McMahon, who was driving the car he borrowed from a friend, lost control as it rounded a dangerous curve leading to the bridge.

E. T. CUSTENBORDER

Evan T. Custenborder was born on June 18, 1859, in Quincy, the son of Frederick and Deliah Heaston Custenborder, his father having settled in that community after emigrating to the United States from Germany.

The deceased received his education in the public schools of Logan county and entered the grain business of his brother in Quincy. He later joined the firm of Wells and Company, grain dealers in Quincy, working himself up to a partnership in that firm until in 1912 he disposed of his interests there and moved to Sidney two years later.

He started his own grain brokerage office in 1913 under the name of E. T. Custenborder and company in which his son, J. C. Custenborder was associated and together they have operated the company until the present time.

Mr. Custenborder was active in his state association, having served two terms as president and two terms as secretary of the Ohio Grain Dealers association. He was also president of the Miami Grain and Feed company, Sidney, and the Rosewood Grain company, at the time of his death.

He had been an active member of the Sidney Merchants association, serving as its vice president and on the board of trustees until a year ago when his health necessitated a curb on his activity. His interest in Sidney was always great and he backed many worthwhile enterprises with his time, money and influence

PROMINENT SALEM TOWNSHIP FARMER HAS PASSED AWAY

John W. Valentine Dies At His Home Near Maplewood; Funeral Saturday Afternoon.

John W. Valentine, 67, prominent farmer of the Maplewood community, passed away at his home in Salem township Wednesday evening at eleven-thirty o'clock. 7-27-1938

His death, caused by complications, was preceded by several years of illness, although he had been bedfast only since Monday.

Mr. Valentine was a native of Champaign county, and he was born there on August 21, 1871. His parents were Oliver and Philina Valentine. One sister, Mrs. Melva Suson, of DeGraff, is the sole survivor of that family.

On February 17, 1892, he was united in marriage with Miss Rose Stewart, who survives him. They were the parents of three children, Harold Valentine, of Sidney; Roy Valentine, of Flatrock, Michigan, and Mrs. Othel Green, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren are left to mourn his death.

Mr. Valentine was a member of the Knights of Pythias, and he was a member of the Methodist church at Maplewood. He was an active farmer, although his long illness impaired his activities for some time.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from the Methodist church at Maplewood, and burial will be made in the Glen cemetery at Port Jefferson.

Friends may call at the home at any time.

Mayor Believes Both City Building And Sewage Plant Can Be Secured.

The plans and prospects for the construction of a new city building and a sewage disposal plant were discussed by Mayor John Sexauer at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Sidney Kiwanis club, Wednesday noon.

Outlining the various things that he as mayor had hoped to accomplish in Sidney, Sexauer pointed out how the Main street improvement had been carried through and was now only awaiting final approval by the government, and how the city council had authorized the extension of Poplar street through to the hospital.

In discussing the matter of the construction of a new city building, authorization for the preliminary work of which has already been given by council, and the construction of a sewage disposal plant, action regarding which is still pending, the mayor expressed the belief that both could be carried through.

The financial condition of the city is excellent, so much so that the city could issue $74,000 in bonds, by a vote only of council, without the tax rate being changed. This is possible because of the large sinking fund that has been built up over a period of years.

In discussing the controversy that has arisen over the two matters, the mayor said that whichever the people of the city wanted, he wanted, but that he felt a careful consideration of the two projects would reveal that both could be carried through successfully.

With the federal government allowing 45 per cent of the cost and with the city able to float a bond issue of $74,000, and if the sewage disposal plant were placed on a revenue basis, as is done in most places, the city could successfully handle both projects.

The preliminary plans for the city building call for the erection of a structure that would house the fire and police departments, all city offices and in addition would have an auditorium with a seating capacity of about 800 people.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

ship farm, about 35 miles from here, state police reported.

PROMINENT SALEM TOWNSHIP FARMER HAS PASSED AWAY

John W. Valentine Dies At His Home Near Maplewood; Funeral Saturday Afternoon.

John W. Valentine, 67, prominent farmer of the Maplewood community, passed away at his home in Salem township Wednesday evening at eleven-thirty o'clock. 7-27-1938

His death, caused by complications, was preceded by several years of illness, although he had been bedfast only since Monday.

Mr. Valentine was a native of Champaign county, and he was born there on August 21, 1871. His parents were Oliver and Philina Valentine. One sister, Mrs. Melva Suson, of DeGraff, is the sole survivor of that family.

On February 17, 1892, he was united in marriage with Miss Rose Stewart, who survives him. They were the parents of three children, Harold Valentine, of Sidney; Roy Valentine, of Flatrock, Michigan, and Mrs. Othel Green, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren are left to mourn his death.

Mr. Valentine was a member of the Knights of Pythias, and he was a member of the Methodist church at Maplewood. He was an active farmer, although his long illness impaired his activities for some time.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from the Methodist church at Maplewood, and burial will be made in the Glen cemetery at Port Jefferson.

Friends may call at the home at any time.

Dear Lucy,

Enclosed is a copy of Wilbur F Gentis's obituary. I thought that I also had an obituary for Georgia I Fuson, if I did I have misplaced it.

The person who claims to have viewed the graves of Hannah Keith and Wm Valentine in Dayton Ohio is Dick Valentine of New Jersey. I don't have an address in mind, however, if I find one I will pass it along.

Your photos were nice and clear. How do you get the names to stand out so visible?

Do you have any idea who the Wm Valentine is that married Melissa Madison? The license was issued in Jul 31 1873. Also the William V. who married Hester J Madison Jun 01 1875?

I have other Valentines that I can't place. When I get it all together I'll pass them along. You may recognize the names.

Sincerely,

Carl V.

Carl Valentine.

Wilbur F. Gentis

QUINCY — Wilbur F. Gentis, 85, 305 S. Miami St., died Friday, March 15, 1996, at 4:51 a.m. at Wilson Memorial Hospital.

He was born March 7, 1911, in Champaign County, son of Cyrus F. and Ida M. (Haney) Gentis.

On Aug. 8, 1935, he married the former Georgia I. Fuson in Bellefontaine. She died Jan. 28, 1994.

He is survived by two daughters, Wilda Gentis and Mrs. Mike (Barbara) Edens, both of Quincy; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Two brothers and three sisters preceded him in death.

Mr. Gentis was a carpenter.

Services will be held Monday at 1 p.m. at the Rexer-Riggin-Madden Funeral Home in DeGraff, with the Rev. James Roby officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood-Union Cemetery, DeGraff.

Friends may call at the funeral home on Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Quincy/Miami Township Fire and Rescue.

VICTIM OF GAS EXPLOSION!

Carl Shields of Kenton Dies From Injuries Received Funeral in DeGraff.

A disastrous gas explosion occurred in Kenton last Tuesday morning, which killed one person, injured four others, wrecked one building and broke every plate glass window on the north side of the public square.

The facts as gleaned from the Kenton Daily News-Republican are substantially as follows:

H. A. Hisey, a plumber, was called to the bakery of Mrs. E. C. Schneider to find and repair a gas leak. There had been a smell of gas in the store for several days. Failing to find the leak there, he went to Bartholomey's fruit store next door, and when attempting to look under a window seat, the explosion occurred, causing such dire destruction. Hisey was blown into the cellar and received bad burns. The building was completly wrecked, and adjoining store fronts were blown out and the shelf goods scattered.

Of the accident to the little Shields boy tne News-Republican says:

All this wreckage held the attention of the crowd for some time after the removal of those who had suffered injury, and then came the insatiable inquiry as to the cause of the explosion and the condition of those who had been hurt. It was learned that Shields was the worst injured and rumors were continually set afloat that he had died. Denial followed each report, but it was true that he was in an extremely critical condition.

Carl shields must have been directly in front of the building when the explosion took place. He was blown out to thr street and his head struck against the curb. He was carried to a physician's office where his injuries were inspected. It was seen at once that he was badly hurt and perhaps fatally. He was then taken to the hospital where his injuries were found to be as follows: On the left side of the head there is a wound involving the parietal bone. Also a scalp wound separating the soft tissues from the skull bone. The skull bone [illegible] ured two inches one way and two and one half another. A piece of bone, irregular in shape, was pressing on the brain. This was removed and found to measure one inch one way and two

ROBERT VALENTINE BURNED OUT.

His Hotel at Bloomcenter Burned to the Ground Last Sunday Night.

Robert Valentine,s hotel at Bloom Center was burned to the ground last Sunday night, and the family barely escaped with their lives. Very little of the contents was saved. About 11 o'clock the older persons in the house were awakened by the noise made by the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Valentine, who seemed to be choking from the smoke which had spread through the house. At about the same time neighbors discovered the fire, which had first started in the kitchen, but just how can not be ascertained.

There was no time after the discovery of the fire to remove much of the household goods. A barber shop, next to the hotel, was also burned, with most of its contents.

The bucket brigade did good work in keeping the flames from spreading to other dwellings.

The loss is estimated at about $1400, with $600 insurance.

The telephone station which was located in Mr. Valentine's hotel, has been transferred to the general store of W. T. Huber.

C. C C.

The Christian Culture Circle met with Miss Capitola Hance, Friday, to rehearse the lesson drawn from Daniel, Chapters 1 and 7, inclusive.

Mrs. Kumler gave a very interesting account of the four Hebrew captives, after which Mrs. Maggie Huston related Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and gave its interpretation.

The history and account of "The Handwriting on the Wall" was given by Mrs. George Forry. Quite an interesting discussion followed this paper.

The account of Daniel's experience in the lion's den was given by Mrs. Eunice Norton.

The question "Whether the People of To-day Suffer as Much as Daniel in the Lion's Den," brought out quite a discussion.

Daniel's vision of the four beasts and God's kingdom, was beautifully portrayed by Mrs. Virginia Dillon.

The lesson review was given by Rebecca Pegan.

Pleasantly Wedded.

At the home of the bride's father, near Versailles, Ohio, on Christmas night, William A. Jackson and Miss Clara B. Leatherman were married by her brother, Rev. Walter H. Leatherman of DeGraff. There were present twenty guests who enjoyed the bounteous supper and left many valuable presents. Both the young people are known about Versailles.

Pretty Home Wedding.

At the country home of Mr. and Mrs. David Shaw, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Verna Myrre and Mr. Francis M. Swonguer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J Diefenderfer, under an arch of holly and mistletoe. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. S. Swonguer of Toledo.

The guests consisted of the near relatives of the bride and groom.

After congratulations the guests were invited to the dining room where they partook of the wedding supper.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

After January 1, Mr. and Mrs Swonguer will be at home to their friends at 316 W. High street, Lima Ohio.

A Christmas Surprise.

The children and grand-children of Mr. and Mrs. H D. Young had planned a surprise for them, which was carried to a complete success. Last Sunday morning all gathered at the house of a neighbor just above their home near Logansville. The men carried a beautiful book case which had been purchased by the children and previously delivered at the neighbor's. This was presented to father and mother Young as a Christmas present and a token of love and esteem.

Then the ladies carried in the baskets of good things to eat, and 12 o'clock announced that dinner was ready. It was bountiful, and the good cheer prevailed everywhere.

After adjournment to the parlor, the grand-children, who had prepared a program, entertained the company. At 4 o'clock real Christmas time was apparent, for from some hidden nook boxes, packages and bundles were brought forth and distributed. All hearts were made glad and each expressed a wish to enjoy many such

COTTAGE HOTEL BURNED DOWN IN BLOOMCENTER.

Robert Valentine's Family Had a Narrow Escape

From the Burning Building Late Sunday Night.

Bucket Brigade Saved Adjoining Property by Hard Work.

Special to The Examiner.

Bloomcenter, Dec. 23.—The Cottage hotel, the home of Robert Valentine and family, burned to the ground last night with the major part of the contents.

The fire broke out in the kitchen at 11 o'clock and was discovered barely in time to save the lives of the household. All were asleep and the building was half consumed before any one knew it and when the alarm was given the family had to fly for their lives and were almost overcome by the smoke and flames.

A barber shop conducted by Charles Valentine adjoining the home was also destroyed.

From the home only a few chairs and some articles of bedding were saved and from the shop the mirrors were rescued.

The townspeople turned out and worked heroically and by the hardest effort saved the Valentine blacksmith shop to the south and the Isaac Deerwester dwelling to the north. Fortunately the town pump was close to the property and the bucket brigade accomplished a great work in preventing a spread of the flames.

Robert Valentine's family and the family of his son Clarence, who is in Cincinnati, occupied the home, and both families lost heavily in the way of household goods. They found shelter with the families of Levi Elliott and Wesley Goss, who are relatives.

The origin of the fire is not known but it is supposed that it came from a spark from a neighboring flue.

The loss is estimated at $1,400. Insurance $600.

Mary -

thank You!

The Valentine link was one I've needed for a long time.

Now, If I could locate a marriage for Olivier Valentine
& Phileena McClasky I'd be set!

Greetings: L. Green Date: 9/25/96

Perry County was formed from parts of Washington, Fairfield and Muskingum Counties. Marriage and Estate Records can be found from 1818 to the present. No information as to parents is listed on Marriage Records until 1900 unless the father signed for the license. Xerox copies for these records are 75¢ and certified copies are $1.75.

Birth and Death Records were kept at the Probate Court starting in 1867 to 1908, although we do have some records as late as the 1930's. The Probate Court does not have actual Birth or Death Certificates and the information listed in the Birth and Death Records is all that is available through the Probate Court. This information was compiled from several books and made into one big book. The ledger and page references indicate the original book and page numbers from which thisinformation was obtained and it is the exact same information as is in the original books. Dates 67-99 refer to the 1800's and 00-? refer to the 1900;s. Xerox copies of these records are 75¢ each or the information can be typed on a separate sheet and certified for $5.00 each. Prior to 1867 no records were kept and you would have to locate an approximate date of birth or death through the Census Records which are kept at the Ohio Historical Society in Columbus, Ohio. After 1909, please contact the Perry County Health Department, 121 W, Brown Street, New Lexington, Ohio 43764, Telephone No. (614) 342-5179.

Declaration of Intention and Final Record of Naturalization were kept at the Probate Court from 1859 to 1906. After 1906 there were some records at the Clerk of Courts Office, 105 N. Main Street, New Lexington, OH 43764, Telephone No. (614) 342-1022. Xerox copies of these records are 75¢; and we are not permitted to make certified copies of these records. If you wish to have certified copies of these records you must contact the Naturalization and Immigration Department directly.

The Probate Court has Guardianship Records from 1818 to the present. Xerox copies of these records are 75¢ each and certified copies are $1.75.

The Probate Court is open to the public from 8:30 - 4:30 Monday-Friday, except holidays. Any of the records listed above are available for viewing during those hour

You could also check with Ohio University, Alden Library, Athens, Ohio 45701 to see what records they have. Telephone No. (614)593-2712.

General: Information from Beatrice Valentine :

Ltr.,7 July 88
" I also feel William H. Valentine of Logan County, Ohio (1850-1860) was brother to John, Barnabas,and James, as I mentioned previously." The James referred to is James Fuhrman. This was an early comment. I did not believe it was correct.

Ltr., 24 Apr 89
" William H. Valentine, bc 1805; d. before 1850;m.13 Jan 1824 at Perry County, Ohio to Hannah Keith (O'Keefe), b. 1805 (1795),Va . In 1850 she was head of household at Harrison Twp., Champaign Co.,Ohio and was not on the 1860 Census".
She also reports that in the 1830 Census, W.H. was in Thorn Township,Perry Co.,Ohio; in the 1840 Census he was at Auglaize Twp,,Allen County. In the same letter she mentions that Archibald Washington Valentine was born in 1826.

Ltr.,29 Jul 89
This letter reports a "land entry" for W.H. in 1840 at Auglaize Twp., Allen Cty.

Ltr.,3 Mar 92

Ltr.,14 Jun 94
Reports on 1840 Census for Auglaize Twp., Allen Cty.
Also mentions W.H. was next door to William Keith, age 70-80, and spouse, age 50-60.

William was Barnabas' second son, and is so described by Barnabas in his affidavit, Schedule of Property, executed 24 Oct 1821 (Pension Document #12).In her letter of 3 Jan 1989, Lola has William in Massillon Township, Stark County, Ohio. This would see to be in error as William would be 43, and the census cited has no male of that age.

Ruth Janice Barton reports in her letter of 1/1/96 that William died in the fall of 1848.She quotes a letter from Sarah J. Neely to James F. Valentine and his spouse, Anna Herron Valentine. The subject letter is dated 3 Aug 1850.

RJB, in her cited letter, states, " My records from the Valentine Family Bible held by Fred F. Brown (Nancy (Valentine) Brown's son) in 1924 show William Valentine's birthdate as 1797, not 1805."

As to the question of William's spouse , we have :

a. RJB , again in her cited letter, makes reference to Sarah Jane (Valentine) Neely's letter of 3 Aug 1850, and her mention of Hannah, ..." presumably his wife Hannah Keith ?"

b. BV, in her letter of 8 May 89, states, " Census records indicate William Valentine who married Hannah Keith; died bet 1848 and 1850."

c. W. H. was one of the witnesses to William Keith's will in 1843 at Allen County.
